

THE CONSTITUTION OF NAURU

WHEREAS we the people of Nauru acknowledge God as the almighty and everlasting Lord and the giver of all good things:

And Whereas we humbly place ourselves under the protection of His good providence and seek His blessing upon ourselves and upon our lives:

And Whereas we have declared that Nauru shall be a republic:

And Whereas a Constitutional Convention representing us has prepared a constitution for Nauru:

Now Therefore we the people of Nauru in our Constitutional Convention this twenty-ninth day of January, One thousand nine hundred and sixty-eight, do hereby adopt, enact and give to ourselves this Constitution to come into force on the thirty-first day of January, One thousand nine hundred and sixty-eight.

Part VII — The Public Service (Articles 68-70)

Part VIII — Citizenship (Articles 71-76)

Part IX — Emergency Powers (Articles 77-79)

Part X — General (Articles 80-84)

Part XI — Transitional Provisions (Articles 85-100)

PART I — THE REPUBLIC OF NAURU AND THE SUPREME LAW OF NAURU

1 The Republic of Nauru

Nauru is an independent republic.

2 Supreme Law of Nauru

- (1) This Constitution is the supreme law of Nauru.
- (2) A law inconsistent with this Constitution is, to the extent of the inconsistency, void.

PART II — PROTECTION OF FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS AND FREEDOMS

3 Preamble

Whereas every person in Nauru is entitled to the fundamental rights and freedoms of the individual, that is to say, has the right, whatever his race, place of origin, political opinions, colour, creed or sex, but subject to respect for the rights and freedoms of others and for the public interest, to each and all of the following freedoms, namely:—

- (a) life, liberty, security of the person, the enjoyment of property and the protection of the law;
- (b) freedom of conscience, of expression and of peaceful assembly and association; and
- (c) respect for his private and family life,

the subsequent provisions of this Part have effect for the purpose of affording protection to those rights and freedoms, subject to such limitations of that protection as are contained in those provisions, being limitations designed to ensure that the enjoyment of those rights and freedoms by a person does not prejudice the rights and freedoms of other persons or the public interest.

4 Protection of right to life

- (1) No person shall be deprived of his life intentionally, except in execution of a sentence of a court following his conviction of an offence for which the penalty of deprivation of life is prescribed by law.
- (2) Deprivation of the life of a person is not a contravention of the provisions of clause (1) of this Article where it results from the use, to such an extent and in such circumstances as is permitted by law, of such force as is reasonably justifiable in the circumstances of the case—
 - (a) for the defence of a person from violence;
 - (b) for the defence of public property;
 - (c) in order to effect a lawful arrest or to prevent the escape of a person lawfully detained; or
 - (d) for the purpose of suppressing a riot, insurrection or mutiny.

5 Protection of personal liberty

- (1) No person shall be deprived of his personal liberty, except as authorised by law in any of the following cases:—
 - (a) in execution of the sentence or order of a court in respect of an offence of which he has been convicted;
 - (b) or the purpose of bringing him before a court in execution of the order of a court;
 - (c) upon reasonable suspicion of his having committed, or being about to commit, an offence;
 - (d) under the order of a court, for his education during any period ending not later than the thirty-first day of December after he attains the age of eighteen years;
 - (e) under the order of a court, for his welfare during any period ending not later than the date on which he attains the age of twenty years;

- (f) for the purpose of preventing the spread of disease;
 - (g) in the case of a person who is, or is reasonably suspected to be, of unsound mind or addicted to drugs or alcohol, for the purpose of his care or treatment or the protection of the community; and
 - (h) for the purpose of preventing his unlawful entry into Nauru, or for the purpose of effecting his expulsion, extradition or other lawful removal from Nauru.
- (2) A person who is arrested or detained shall be informed promptly of the reasons for the arrest or detention and shall be permitted to consult in the place in which he is detained a legal representative of his own choice.
 - (3) A person who has been arrested or detained in the circumstances referred to in paragraph (c) of clause (1) of this Article and has not been released shall be brought before a judge or some other person holding judicial office within a period of twenty-four hours after the arrest or detention and shall not be further held in custody in connexion with that offence except by order of a judge or some other person holding judicial office.
 - (4) Where a complaint is made to the Supreme Court that a person is unlawfully detained, the Supreme Court shall enquire into the complaint and, unless satisfied that the detention is lawful, shall order that person to be brought before it and shall release him.

6 Protection from forced labour

- (1) No person shall be required to perform forced labour.
 - (2) For the purposes of this Article, "forced labour" does not include—
 - (a) labour required by the sentence or order of a court;
 - (b) labour required of a person while he is lawfully detained, being labour that, though not required by the sentence or order of a court, is reasonably necessary for the purposes of hygiene or for the maintenance of the place at which he is detained;

- (c) labour required of a member of a disciplined force in pursuance of his duties as such a member; or
- (d) labour reasonably required as part of reasonable and normal communal or other civic obligations.

7 Protection from inhuman treatment

No person shall be subjected to torture or to treatment or punishment that is inhuman or degrading.

8 Protection from deprivation of property

- (1) No person shall be deprived compulsorily of his property except in accordance with law for a public purpose and on just terms.
- (2) Nothing contained in or done under the authority of a law shall be held to be inconsistent with or in contravention of the provisions of clause (1) of this Article to the extent that that law makes provision—
 - (a) for the taking of possession or acquisition of any property—
 - (i) in satisfaction of a tax;
 - (ii) by way of penalty for breach of the law or forfeiture in consequence of breach of the law;
 - (iii) as an incident of a lease, tenancy, mortgage, charge, bill of sale, pledge or contract;
 - (iv) in the execution of a judgment or order of a court in proceedings for the determination of civil rights or obligations;
 - (v) in circumstances where it is reasonably necessary so to do because the property is in a dangerous state or is injurious to the health of human beings, animals or plants; or
 - (vi) in consequence of any law with respect to the limitation of actions; or
 - (b) for the taking of possession or acquisition of any of the following property:—

- (i) property of a deceased person, a person of unsound mind or a person who has not attained the age of twenty years, for the purpose of administering it for the benefit of the person entitled to the beneficial interest in that property;
- (ii) property of a person adjudged bankrupt or insolvent or of a body corporate in liquidation, for the purpose of administering it for the benefit of the creditors of the bankrupt or insolvent or body corporate and, subject thereto, for the benefit of other persons entitled to the beneficial interest in the property;
- (iii) property subject to a trust, for the purpose of vesting the property in persons appointed as trustees under the instrument creating the trust or by a court or, by order of a court, for the purpose of giving effect to the trust; and
- (iv) property held by a body corporate established by law for public purposes.

9 Protection of person and property

- (1) No person shall without his consent be subject to the search of his person or property or the entry on his premises by other persons.
 - (2) Nothing contained in or done under the authority of any law shall be held to be inconsistent with or in contravention of the provisions of clause (1) of this Article to the extent that that law makes provision—
 - (a) that is reasonably required in the interests of defence, public safety, public order, public morality, public health, the development or utilisation of natural resources or the development or utilisation of any property for a purpose beneficial to the community;
 - (b) that is reasonably required for protecting the rights or freedoms of other persons;
 - (c) that authorises an officer or agent of the Republic of Nauru or of a body corporate established by law for public purposes to enter, where reasonably necessary, on the premises of a person in order to inspect those premises or anything in or on them in relation to any tax or in order to carry out work connected with any property that is lawfully in or on those premises and belongs to the Republic or body corporate as the case may be; or

- (d) that authorises, for the purpose of enforcing the judgment or order of a court, the search of a person or property by order of a court or entry upon any premises under such an order.

10 Provision to secure protection of law

- (1) No person shall be convicted of an offence which is not defined by law.
 - (2) A person charged with an offence shall, unless the charge is withdrawn, be afforded a fair hearing within a reasonable time by an independent and impartial court.
 - (3) A person charged with an offence—
 - (a) shall be presumed innocent until proved guilty according to law;
 - (b) shall be informed promptly in a language that he understands and in detail of the nature of the offence with which he is charged;
 - (c) shall be given adequate time and facilities for the preparation of his defence;
 - (d) shall be permitted to have without payment the assistance of an interpreter if he cannot understand or speak the language used at the trial of the charge;
 - (e) shall be permitted to defend himself before the court in person or, at his own expense, by a legal representative of his own choice or to have a legal representative assigned to him in a case where the interests of justice so require and without payment by him in any such case if he does not, in the opinion of the court, have sufficient means to pay the costs incurred; and
 - (f) shall be afforded facilities to examine in person or by his legal representative the witnesses called before the court by the prosecution, and to obtain the attendance and carry out the examination of witnesses and to testify before the court on his own behalf, on the same conditions as those applying to witnesses called by the prosecution, and, except with his own consent, the trial shall not take place in his absence unless he so conducts himself as to render the continuance of the proceedings in his presence impracticable and the court has ordered him to be removed and the trial to proceed in his absence.

- (4) No person shall be convicted of an offence on account of any act or omission that did not, at the time it took place, constitute such an offence and no penalty shall be imposed for an offence that is more severe in degree or description than the maximum penalty that might have been imposed for that offence at the time when it was committed.
 - (5) No person who shows that he has been tried by a competent court for an offence and either convicted or acquitted shall again be tried for that offence, except upon the order of a superior court made in the course of appeal or review proceedings relating to the conviction or acquittal.
 - (6) No person shall be tried for an offence for which he has been pardoned.
 - (7) No person who is tried for an offence shall be compelled to give evidence at the trial.
 - (8) No person shall be compelled in the trial of an offence to be a witness against himself.
 - (9) A determination of the existence or extent of a civil right or obligation shall not be made except by an independent and impartial court or other authority prescribed by law and proceedings for such a determination shall be fairly heard and within a reasonable time.
 - (10) Except with the agreement of the parties thereto, proceedings of a court and proceedings for the determination of the existence or extent of any civil right or obligation before any other authority, including the announcement of the decision of the court or other authority, shall be held in public.

- (11) Nothing in clause (10) of this Article shall prevent the court or other authority from excluding from the hearing of the proceedings persons, other than the parties thereto and their legal representatives, to such extent as the court or other authority—
- (a) is by law empowered to do and considers necessary or expedient in the interests of public morality or in circumstances where publicity would prejudice the interests of justice, the welfare of persons under the age of twenty years or the protection of the private lives of persons concerned in the proceedings; or
 - (b) is by law empowered or required to do in the interests of defence, public safety or public order.
- (12) Nothing contained in or done under the authority of any law shall be held to be inconsistent with or in contravention of the provisions of —
- (a) paragraph (a) of clause (3) of this Article by reason that that law places upon a person charged with an offence the burden of proving particular matters; or
 - (b) paragraph (f) of clause (3) of this Article by reason that that law imposes reasonable conditions which must be satisfied if witnesses called to testify on behalf of a person charged with an offence are to be paid their expenses out of public funds.

11 Freedom of conscience

- (1) A person has the right to freedom of conscience, thought and religion, including freedom to change his religion or beliefs and freedom, either alone or in community with others and in public or private, to manifest and propagate his religion or beliefs in worship, teaching, practice and observance.
 - (2) Except with his consent, no person shall be hindered in the enjoyment of a right or freedom referred to in clause (1) of this Article.

- (3) Except with his consent or, if he is under the age of twenty years, the consent of his parent or guardian, no person attending a place of education is required to receive religious instruction or to take part in or attend a religious ceremony or observance if that instruction, ceremony or observance relates to a religion other than his own religion or belief.
- (4) Nothing contained in or done under the authority of any law shall be held to be inconsistent with or in contravention of the provisions of this Article to the extent that that law makes provision which is reasonably required—
 - (a) in the interests of defence, public safety, public order, public morality or public health;
 - (b) for protecting the rights and freedoms of other persons, including the right to observe and practise any religion without the unsolicited intervention of members of some other religion; or
 - (c) for regulating the secular education provided in any place of education in the interests of the persons receiving instruction in that place.

12 Protection of freedom of expression

- (1) A person has the right to freedom of expression.
 - (2) Except with his consent, no person shall be hindered in the enjoyment of his right to freedom of expression.
 - (3) Nothing contained in or done under the authority of any law shall be held to be inconsistent with, or in contravention of, the provisions of this Article to the extent that that law makes provision—
 - (a) that is reasonably required in the interests of defence, public safety, public order, public morality or public health;
 - (b) that is reasonably required for the purpose of protecting the reputations, rights and freedoms of other persons or the private lives of persons concerned in legal proceedings, preventing the disclosure of information received in confidence or maintaining the authority and independence of the courts;

- (c) that is reasonably required for the purpose of regulating the technical administration or technical operation of telephony, telegraphy, posts, wireless broadcasting or television or restricting the establishment or use of telephonic, telegraphic, wireless broadcasting or television equipment or of postal services; or
- (d) that regulates the use of information obtained by public officers in the course of their employment.

13 Protection of freedom of assembly and association

- (1) Persons have the right to assemble and associate peaceably and to form or belong to trade unions or other associations.
- (2) Except with his consent, no person shall be hindered in the enjoyment of a right referred to in clause (1) of this Article.
- (3) Nothing contained in or done under the authority of any law shall be held to be inconsistent with, or in contravention of, the provisions of this Article to the extent that that law makes provision that is reasonably required—
 - (a) in the interests of defence, public safety, public order, public morality or public health; or
 - (b) for protecting the rights and freedoms of other persons.

14 Enforcement of fundamental rights and freedoms

- (1) A right or freedom conferred by this Part is enforceable by the Supreme Court at the suit of a person having an interest in the enforcement of that right or freedom.
 - (2) The Supreme Court may make all such orders and declarations as are necessary and appropriate for the purposes of clause (1) of this Article.

15 Interpretation

In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires—

"contravention", in relation to any requirement, includes a failure to comply with that requirement, and cognate expressions shall be construed accordingly;

"disciplined force" means—

- (a) the Police Force; or
- (b) any other body established by law for the purposes of defence or maintaining public safety or public order;

"legal representative" means a person entitled to be in or to enter Nauru and entitled by law to appear in proceedings before a court on behalf of a party to those proceedings;

"member", in relation to a disciplined force, includes a person who, under the law regulating the discipline of that force, is subject to that discipline;

"public property" includes property of a body corporate established by law for public purposes.

PART III — THE PRESIDENT AND THE EXECUTIVE

16 The President

- (1) There shall be a President of Nauru, who shall be elected by Parliament.
 - (2) A person is not qualified to be elected President unless he is a member of Parliament.
 - (3) The Speaker and the Deputy Speaker are not qualified to be elected President.
 - (4) The President holds office until the election of another person as President.
 - (5) Parliament shall elect a President—

- (a) whenever the office of President is vacant;
- (b) at the first sitting of Parliament next following its dissolution;
and
- (c) whenever—
 - (i) the President tenders the resignation of his office by writing under his hand delivered to the Speaker;
 - (ii) a resolution for the removal from office of the President and Ministers is approved under Article 24; or
 - (iii) the President ceases to be a member of Parliament otherwise than by reason only of its dissolution.

17 Executive Authority vests in the Cabinet

- (1) The executive authority of Nauru is vested in a Cabinet constituted as provided by this Part and the Cabinet has the general direction and control of the government of Nauru.
- (2) The Cabinet is collectively responsible to Parliament.

18 The Cabinet

- (1) The Cabinet consists of the President and the Ministers appointed under Article 19.
- (2) A member of the Cabinet shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe the oath set out in the First Schedule.
- (3) A member of the Cabinet shall not hold an office of profit in the service of Nauru or of a statutory corporation.

19 Appointment of Ministers

- (1) Whenever a President is elected, he shall as soon as practicable appoint four or five members of Parliament to be Ministers of the Cabinet.

- (2) Whenever there are less than four Ministers the President shall appoint a member of Parliament to be a Minister but if Parliament is dissolved the President shall appoint a person who was a member immediately before the dissolution of Parliament.
- (3) Whenever there are four but not five Ministers the President may appoint a member of Parliament to be a Minister.

20 Vacation of office

A Minister ceases to hold office—

- (a) upon the election of a President;
- (b) upon resigning his office by writing under his hand delivered to the President;
- (c) upon being removed from office by the President; or
- (d) upon ceasing to be a member of Parliament otherwise than by reason only of its dissolution.

21 Provision for Minister to act as President

The Cabinet may appoint a Minister to perform the duties and exercise the functions of the President during any period during which the President is unable to act owing to illness, absence from Nauru or any other cause.

22 Meetings of Cabinet

- (1) The President shall preside at meetings of the Cabinet.
- (2) Subject to this Constitution, the Cabinet may regulate its own procedure.

23 Appointment of Ministers to Departments

The President may assign to himself or to a Minister responsibility for any business of the government of Nauru and may revoke or vary an assignment made under this Article.

24 Vote Motion of no confidence

- (1) Where Parliament on a resolution approved by at least one-half of the total number of members of Parliament resolves that the President and Ministers be removed from office on the grounds that it has no confidence in the Cabinet, an election of a President shall be held.
- (2) Where a President has not been elected before the expiration of a period of seven days after the day on which a resolution under clause (1) of this Article is approved Parliament shall stand dissolved.

25 Chief Secretary

- (1) There shall be a Chief Secretary of Nauru, who shall be appointed by the Cabinet.
- (2) A member of Parliament is not qualified to be appointed Chief Secretary.
- (3) The Chief Secretary may resign his office by writing under his hand delivered to the President and may be removed from office by the Cabinet.
- (4) The Chief Secretary has such powers and functions as the Cabinet directs and as are conferred on him by this Constitution or by law.

PART IV — THE LEGISLATURE

26 Establishment of legislature

There shall be a Parliament of Nauru.

27 Legislative powers of legislature

Subject to this Constitution, Parliament may make laws for the peace, order and good government of Nauru; laws so made may have effect outside as well as within Nauru.

28 The Parliament

- (1) Parliament shall consist of eighteen members or such greater number as is prescribed by law.
- (2) For the purpose of the election of members of Parliament, Nauru shall be divided into constituencies.
- (3) Unless otherwise prescribed by law, the constituencies and the number of members of Parliament to be returned by each of the constituencies are those described in the Second Schedule.
- (4) A person shall not be at the same time a member of Parliament for more than one constituency.

29 Electors for Parliament

Members of Parliament shall be elected in such manner as is prescribed by law, by Nauruan citizens who have attained the age of twenty years.

 - (c) has been convicted and is under sentence or is subject to be sentenced for an offence punishable according to law by death or by imprisonment for one year or longer ;

- (d) does not possess such qualifications relating to residence or domicile in Nauru as are prescribed by law; or
- (e) holds an office of profit in the service of Nauru or of a statutory corporation, being an office prescribed by law for the purposes of this paragraph.

32 Vacation of seats by members of Parliament

- (1) A member of Parliament vacates his seat—
 - (a) upon the dissolution of Parliament next after his election;
 - (b) upon becoming disqualified under Article 31 to be elected a member of Parliament;
 - (c) upon resigning his seat by writing under his hand delivered, in the case of a member other than the Speaker, to the Speaker and, in the case of the Speaker, to the Clerk of Parliament;
 - (d) if he is absent without leave of Parliament on every day on which a meeting of Parliament is held during a period of two months; or
 - (e) upon ceasing to be a Nauruan citizen.
- (2) In the event of the occurrence of a vacancy in the office of a member of Parliament, an election shall be held in the manner prescribed by law of a member to fill the vacant office.

33 Clerk of Parliament

- (1) There shall be a Clerk of Parliament, who shall be appointed by the Speaker.
 - (2) A member of Parliament is not qualified to be appointed Clerk of Parliament.
 - (3) The Clerk of Parliament may at any time resign his office by writing under his hand delivered to the Speaker and may be removed from office by the Speaker at any time.

- (4) Before or during the absence of the Clerk of Parliament, the Speaker may appoint a person who is not a member of Parliament to perform the functions of the Clerk during his absence.

34 Speaker of Parliament

- (1) Parliament shall, before it proceeds to the despatch of any other business, elect one of its members to be Speaker and, whenever the office of Speaker is vacant, shall not transact any business other than the election of one of its members to fill that office.
- (2) A member of the Cabinet is not qualified to be elected Speaker.
- (3) The Speaker ceases to hold office—
 - (a) when Parliament first meets after a dissolution;
 - (b) upon ceasing to be a member of Parliament otherwise than by reason only of its dissolution;
 - (c) upon becoming a member of the Cabinet;
 - (d) upon being removed from office by a resolution Parliament;
or
 - (e) upon resigning his office by writing under his hand delivered to the Clerk of Parliament.

35 Deputy Speaker of Parliament

- (1) Parliament shall, after the election of the Speaker and before it proceeds to the despatch of any other business, elect one of its members to be Deputy Speaker and, whenever the office of Deputy Speaker is vacant, shall, as soon as possible, elect one of its members to fill that office.
- (2) A member of the Cabinet is not qualified to be elected Deputy Speaker.
- (3) The Deputy Speaker ceases to hold office—
 - (a) when Parliament first meets after a dissolution;

- (b) upon ceasing to be a member of Parliament otherwise than by reason only of its dissolution;
 - (c) upon becoming a member of the Cabinet;
 - (d) upon being removed from office by a resolution of Parliament; or
 - (e) upon resigning his office by writing under his hand delivered to the Clerk of Parliament.
- (4) The powers and functions conferred by this Constitution upon the Speaker shall, if there is no person holding the office of Speaker or if the Speaker is absent from a sitting of Parliament or is otherwise unable to exercise those powers and perform those functions, be exercised and performed by the Deputy Speaker and, if he is also absent or unable to exercise those powers and perform those functions, Parliament may elect one of its members to exercise those powers and perform those functions.

36 Determination on questions of membership of Parliament

Any question that arises concerning the right of a person to be or to remain a member of Parliament shall be referred to and determined by the Supreme Court.

37 Powers privileges and immunities of Parliament

The powers, privileges and immunities of Parliament and of its members and committees are such as are declared by Parliament.

38 Procedure in Parliament

- (1) Parliament may make, amend or repeal rules and orders with respect to—
- (a) the mode in which its powers, privileges and immunities may be exercised and upheld; and
 - (b) the conduct of its business and proceedings.

- (2) Parliament may act notwithstanding a vacancy in its membership and the presence or participation of a person not entitled to be present at, or to participate in, the proceedings of Parliament does not invalidate those proceedings.

39 General Elections for Parliament

A general election of members of Parliament shall be held at such time within two months after a dissolution of Parliament as the Speaker in accordance with the advice of the President appoints.

40 Sessions of Parliament

- (1) Each session of Parliament shall be held at such place and shall begin at such time, not being later than twelve months after the end of the preceding session if Parliament has been prorogued, or twenty-one days after the last day on which a candidate at a general election is declared elected if Parliament has been dissolved, as the Speaker in accordance with the advice of the President appoints.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of clause (1) of this Article, the sittings of Parliament shall be held at such times and places as it, by its rules of procedure or otherwise, determines.

41 Prorogation and dissolution of Parliament

- (1) The Speaker, in accordance with the advice of the President, may at any time prorogue Parliament.
- (2) The Speaker shall, if he is advised by the President to dissolve Parliament, refer the advice of the President to Parliament as soon as practicable and in any case before the expiration of fourteen days after his receipt of the advice.
- (3) For the purposes of clause (2) of this Article, and notwithstanding Article 40, the Speaker shall, if necessary, appoint a time for the beginning of a session, or for a sitting, of Parliament.

- (4) Where the Speaker has, under clause (2) of this Article, referred the advice of the President to Parliament, and no resolution for the removal from office of the President and Ministers under Article 24 is approved after the date on which the advice was so referred, he shall dissolve Parliament on the seventh day after that date.
- (5) The President may withdraw his advice at any time before the Speaker has dissolved Parliament and where the President so withdraws his advice, the Speaker shall not dissolve Parliament.
- (6) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this Article, where a resolution for the removal from office of the President and Ministers is approved under Article 24, the Speaker shall not—
 - (a) prorogue Parliament; or
 - (b) dissolve Parliament,during the period of seven days after the day on which the resolution is approved.
- (7) Parliament shall, unless sooner dissolved, continue for a period of three years from and including the date of the first sitting of Parliament after any dissolution and shall then stand dissolved.

42 Sessions of Parliament at request of one-third of members

- (1) Where—
 - (a) Parliament is not in session; and
 - (b) there is delivered to the Speaker a request that complies with clause (2) of this Article for the holding of a session,the Speaker shall appoint a time for the holding of a session of Parliament, being a time before the expiration of fourteen days after the request is delivered.
 - (2) A request referred to in clause (1) of this Article—
 - (a) shall be in writing;
 - (b) shall be signed by a member of Parliament for each of at least three constituencies and by a number of members of

Parliament which is at least one-third of the total number of members of Parliament; and

(c) shall set out particulars of the business proposed to be dealt with at the session of Parliament.

43 Oath of members of Parliament

- (1) A member of Parliament shall, before taking his seat, take and subscribe before Parliament the oath set out in the Third Schedule, but a member may before taking and subscribing that oath take part in electing the Speaker.
- (2) The Speaker shall, if he has not taken and subscribed the oath set out in the Third Schedule, take and subscribe that oath before entering upon the duties of his office.

44 Speaker to preside

The Speaker shall preside at a sitting of Parliament.

45 Quorum

No business shall be transacted at a sitting of Parliament if the number of its members present, other than the person presiding at the sitting, is less than one-half of the total number of members of Parliament.

46 Voting

- (1) Except as otherwise provided by this Constitution, a question before Parliament shall be decided by a majority of the votes of its members present and voting.
- (2) The Speaker or other member presiding in Parliament shall not vote unless on a question the votes are equally divided in which case he has and shall exercise a casting vote.

47 Enactment of laws

A proposed law becomes law on the date when the Speaker certifies that it has been passed by Parliament.

PART V — THE JUDICATURE

48 Supreme Court of Nauru

- (1) There shall be a Supreme Court of Nauru, which shall be a superior court of record.
- (2) The Supreme Court has, in addition to the jurisdiction conferred on it by this Constitution, such jurisdiction as is prescribed by law.

49 Chief Justice and Judges of Supreme Court

- (1) The Supreme Court consists of a Chief Justice or such number, if any, of other judges as is prescribed by law.
- (2) The judges of the Supreme Court shall be appointed by the President.
- (3) A person is not qualified to be appointed a judge of the Supreme Court unless he is entitled as prescribed by law to practise as a barrister or solicitor in Nauru and has been so entitled for not less than five years.

50 Vacation of office

- (1) A judge of the Supreme Court ceases to hold office on attaining the age of sixty-five years or, if a greater age is prescribed by law for the purposes of this Article, on attaining that greater age.
- (2) A law that prescribes a greater age for the purposes of this Article may provide that that law applies only to specified judges.

51 Removal from office and resignation

- (1) A judge of the Supreme Court may not be removed from office except on a resolution of Parliament approved by not less than two-thirds of the total number of members of Parliament praying for his removal from office on the ground of proved incapacity or misconduct.
 - (2) A judge of the Supreme Court may resign his office by writing under his hand delivered to the President.

52 Oath of office

A judge of the Supreme Court shall not enter upon the duties of his office unless he has taken and subscribed the oath set out in the Fourth Schedule.

53 Acting judges

- (1) If the office of Chief Justice is vacant or if the Chief Justice is for any reason unable to perform the duties of his office then until a person has been appointed to and has assumed the duties of that office or until the person holding that office has resumed those duties, as the case may be, those duties shall be discharged by such one of the other judges of the Supreme Court as is designated by the President or, if there is no other judge of the Supreme Court, by a person designated by the President, being a person who is qualified to be appointed a judge of the Supreme Court.
- (2) If the office of a judge of the Supreme Court other than the office of the Chief Justice is vacant or if the person holding that office is for any reason unable to perform the duties of his office or if the state of business in the Supreme Court so requires, the President may appoint a person qualified to be appointed a judge of the Supreme Court to act as a judge of the Supreme Court and a person so appointed may act as a judge of the Supreme Court notwithstanding that he has attained the age of sixty five years or, if a greater age is prescribed by law for the purposes of Article 50, has attained that greater age.
- (3) The provisions of clause (2) of this Article apply in respect of the office of Chief Justice if at a time when the office of the Chief Justice is vacant no other person holds office as a judge of the Supreme Court.
- (4) A person appointed under clause (2) of this Article to act as a judge of the Supreme Court shall continue to act for the period of his appointment or, if no such period is specified, until his appointment is revoked by the President.

54 Matters concerning the Constitution

- (1) The Supreme Court shall, to the exclusion of any other court, have original jurisdiction to determine any question arising under or involving the interpretation or effect of any provision of this Constitution.
- (2) Without prejudice to any appellate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, where in any proceedings before another court a question arises involving the interpretation or effect of any provision of this Constitution, the cause shall be removed into the Supreme Court, which shall determine that question and either dispose of the case or remit it to that other court to be disposed of in accordance with the determination.

55 The Cabinet may refer questions on Constitution to the Supreme Court

The President or a Minister may, in accordance with the approval of the Cabinet, refer to the Supreme Court for its opinion any question concerning the interpretation or effect of any provision of this Constitution which has arisen or appears to the Cabinet likely to arise, and the Supreme Court shall pronounce in open court its opinion on the question.

56 Subordinate courts

There shall be such subordinate courts as are established by law and those courts possess such jurisdiction and powers as are prescribed by law.

57 Appeals

- (1) Parliament may provide that an appeal lies as prescribed by law from a judgment, decree, order or sentence of the Supreme Court constituted by one judge to the Supreme Court constituted by not less than two judges.
 - (2) Parliament may provide that an appeal lies as prescribed by law from a judgment, decree, order or sentence of the Supreme Court to a court of another country.

PART VI —FINANCE

58 Treasury Fund

All revenues and other moneys raised or received by Nauru, not being revenues or other moneys payable by law into another fund established for a specific purpose, shall be paid into and form a Treasury Fund.

59 Withdrawals from Treasury Fund and public funds

- (1) No moneys shall be withdrawn from the Treasury Fund except to meet expenditure that is charged upon the Treasury Fund by this Constitution or in accordance with law.
- (2) No moneys shall be withdrawn from any fund referred to in Article 58 other than the Treasury Fund except in accordance with law.
- (3) A proposed law for the withdrawal of moneys from the Treasury Fund or any other fund referred to in Article 58 shall not receive the certificate of the Speaker under Article 47 unless the purpose of the withdrawal has been recommended to Parliament by the Cabinet.
- (4) The Cabinet shall cause to be prepared and laid before Parliament before the date of commencement of each financial year (or if, in respect of a particular financial year, Parliament, by resolution, determines a later date, before that later date), estimates of the revenues and expenditure of Nauru for that year.

60 Taxation

No tax shall be raised except as prescribed by law and a proposed law for the imposition of a tax shall not receive the certificate of the Speaker under Article 47 unless the imposition of the tax has been recommended to Parliament by the Cabinet.

61 Withdrawal of moneys in advance of appropriation law

- (1) If the appropriation law in respect of a financial year has not received the certificate of the Speaker under Article 47 on or before the twenty-first day before the commencement of that financial year, the Cabinet may, in accordance with clause (2) of this Article, recommend to Parliament a proposed law authorising the withdrawal of moneys from the Treasury Fund for the purpose of meeting expenditure necessary to carry on the services of the Republic of Nauru after the commencement of that financial year until the expiration of three months or the coming into operation of the appropriation law, whichever is the earlier.
- (2) A recommendation by the Cabinet referred to in clause (1) of this Article shall be in writing delivered to the Speaker not later than the fourteenth day before the commencement of the financial year and the Speaker shall, on receiving the recommendation, lay it before Parliament as soon as practicable.
- (3) For the purposes of clause (2) of this Article, and notwithstanding Article 40, the Speaker shall, if necessary, appoint a time for the beginning of a session, or for a sitting, of Parliament.
- (4) Where the Cabinet has recommended a proposed law under clause (1) of this Article and neither the appropriation law nor that proposed law has come into operation on or before the commencement of that financial year, the Cabinet may authorise the withdrawal of moneys in accordance with that proposed law but the amount of moneys so withdrawn shall not exceed one-quarter of the amount withdrawn under the authority of the appropriation law or laws in respect of the preceding financial year.

62 Long Term Investment Fund

- (1) There shall be a Long Term Investment Fund constituted by the moneys that immediately before the commencement of this Constitution constituted a fund called the Nauruan Community Long Term Investment Fund and by such other moneys as are appropriated by law for payment into the fund or are paid into the fund as provided by clause (2) of this Article.
 - (2) Moneys constituting the Long Term Investment Fund may be invested as prescribed by law and income derived from moneys so invested shall be paid into the fund.

- (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 59, no moneys shall be withdrawn from the Long Term Investment Fund (otherwise than for investment under clause (2) of this Article) until the recovery of the phosphate deposits in Nauru has, by reason of the depletion of those deposits, ceased to provide adequately for the economic needs of the citizens of Nauru.

63 Phosphate royalties

- (1) Parliament may provide for the establishment of a fund for the benefit of persons from whose land phosphate deposits have been recovered and for the payment into that fund of amounts from the Treasury Fund and for the payment of moneys out of that fund to those persons.
- (2) Parliament may provide for the payment from the Treasury Fund to persons from whose land phosphate deposits have been recovered of such royalties as are prescribed by law.

64 Contingencies Fund

- (1) Parliament may provide for the establishment of a Contingencies Fund and for authorising the Cabinet, if satisfied that there has arisen an urgent and unforeseen need for expenditure for which no other provision exists, to make advances from that fund for the purposes of that expenditure.
- (2) Where an advance is made from the Contingencies Fund, provision may be made by law for replacing the amount so advanced.

65 Remuneration of certain officers

- (1) There shall be paid to the holders of the offices to which this Article applies such salary and such allowances as are prescribed by law.
 - (2) The salaries and allowances payable to the holders of the offices to which this Article applies are a charge on the Treasury Fund.
 - (3) The salary and allowances payable to the holder of an office to which this Article applies and his other conditions of service shall not be altered to his disadvantage during the term of his appointment.

- (4) This Article applies to the office of judge of the Supreme Court, Clerk of Parliament, and Director of Audit.

66 Director of Audit

- (1) There shall be a Director of Audit, whose office is a public office.
- (2) The powers and functions and the conditions of service of the Director of Audit are, subject to this Constitution, as prescribed by law.
- (3) The Director of Audit shall not hold or act in any other public office during his period of service and a person who has held the office of Director of Audit shall not hold or act in any public office during the period of three years after he ceases to be Director of Audit.
- (4) The Director of Audit may resign his office at any time by writing under his hand delivered to the Speaker.
- (5) The Director of Audit may not be removed from office except on a resolution of Parliament approved by not less than two-thirds of the total number of members of Parliament praying for his removal from office on the ground of proved incapacity or misconduct.

67 Public debt

- (1) All debt charges for which Nauru is liable are a charge on the Treasury Fund.
- (2) For the purposes of this Article, debt charges include interest, sinking fund charges, repayment or amortisation of debt and all expenditure in connexion with the raising of loans and the service and redemption of the debt thereby created.

PART VII — THE PUBLIC SERVICE

68 Appointments etc., in the Public Service

- (1) Except as otherwise provided by law under Article 69, there is vested in the Chief Secretary the power —

- (a) to appoint, subject to clause (3) of this Article, persons to hold or act in offices in the Public Service;
 - (b) to exercise disciplinary control over persons holding or acting in such offices; and
 - (c) to remove such persons from office.
- (2) The Chief Secretary may, by instrument in writing under his hand, delegate to a public officer power to exercise disciplinary control over persons holding or acting in such public offices, other than offices referred to in clause (3) of this Article, as the Chief Secretary specifies in the instrument and such delegation is subject to such conditions, if any, as the Chief Secretary specifies in the instrument.
- (3) The Chief Secretary may not exercise his power under paragraph (a) of clause (1) of this Article in relation to the office of a person in charge of a department of government and such other offices as are prescribed by law except in accordance with the approval of the Cabinet.
- (4) The Chief Secretary shall report to the Cabinet on such matters relating to the exercise of the powers under this Article as are prescribed by law at least once a year and the Cabinet shall cause a copy of the report to be laid before Parliament.

69 Power of Parliament to establish Public Service Board and to make special provisions regarding police

- (1) Parliament may make provision for either or both of the following:—
- (a) vesting the powers and functions of the Chief Secretary under clauses (1) and (2) of Article 68, in a Public Service Board consisting of the Chief Secretary, who shall be Chairman, and not less than two other persons who are not members of Parliament; and
 - (b) subject to clause (2) of this Article, vesting in the public officer in charge of the Nauru Police Force the powers and functions of the Chief Secretary under clause (1) of Article 68, in so far as they apply to or in respect of public officers in the Nauru Police Force.

- (2) Where Parliament makes provision under paragraph (b) of clause (1) of this Article —
 - (a) it shall also make provision for establishing a Police Service Board consisting of not less than three persons, who are not members of Parliament, of whom one shall be the Chief Justice, who shall be Chairman, one shall be the Chief Secretary, and one shall be a person elected by members of the Nauru Police Force in such manner and for such term as are prescribed by law;
 - (b) the power of the public officer in charge of the Nauru Police Force to appoint persons to hold or act in offices in the Nauru Police Force shall be subject to such consent, if any, of the Police Service Board as is required by law; and
 - (c) the Chief Secretary or, where Parliament has made provision for a Public Service Board, the Public Service Board, shall not exercise the powers or perform the functions under clauses (1) and (2) of Article 68 in so far as they apply to or in respect of public officers in the Nauru Police Force.
- (3) An appeal lies to the Police Service Board from a decision of the public officer in charge of the Nauru Police Force under this Article to remove a public officer from office or to exercise disciplinary control over a public officer at the instance of the public officer in respect of whom the decision is made.
- (4) The Police Service Board shall exercise such other powers and functions as are conferred on it by law and shall, subject to this Article and any law, regulate its own procedure.
- (5) Except as otherwise provided by law, no appeal lies from a decision of the Police Service Board.

70 Public Service Appeals Board

- (1) There shall be a Public Service Appeals Board which shall consist of the Chief Justice, who shall be Chairman, one person appointed by the Cabinet and one person elected by public officers as prescribed by law.
 - (2) A member of Parliament is not qualified to be a member of the Public Service Appeals Board.

- (3) A member of the Public Service Appeals Board ceases to hold office—
 - (a) upon being elected a member of Parliament;
 - (b) if he was appointed by the Cabinet, upon being removed from office by the Cabinet or upon resigning his office by writing under his hand delivered to the President; or
 - (c) if he was elected by public officers, upon the expiration of the term for which he was elected, upon being removed from office in the manner prescribed by law or upon resigning his office by writing under his hand delivered to the Chief Secretary.
 - (4) Whenever a member of the Public Service Appeals Board, other than the Chief Justice, is unable for any reason or ineligible under clause (5) of this Article to perform the duties of his office, the Cabinet may—
 - (a) if the member was appointed by it, appoint a person who is not a member of Parliament; or
 - (b) if the member was elected by public officers, appoint, subject to such conditions, if any, as are prescribed by law, a person, to act as a member of the Public Service Appeals Board during the period of the inability or ineligibility of the member.
 - (5) Parliament may provide that a member of the Public Service Appeals Board, other than the Chief Justice, is ineligible to act in relation to such matters as are prescribed by law.
 - (6) Except where an appeal lies to the Police Service Board under Article 69, an appeal lies to the Public Service Appeals Board from a decision to remove a public officer or to exercise disciplinary control over a public officer at the instance of the public officer in respect of whom the decision is made.
 - (7) The Public Service Appeals Board shall exercise and perform such other powers and functions as are conferred on it by law and shall, subject to this Constitution and any law, regulate its own procedure.
 - (8) Except as otherwise provided by law, no appeal lies from a decision of the Public Service Appeals Board.

PART VIII — CITIZENSHIP

71 Members of Nauruan community to be Nauruan citizens

A person who on the thirtieth day of January One thousand nine hundred and sixty-eight was included in one of the classes of persons who constituted the Nauruan Community within the meaning of the Nauruan Community Ordinance 1956-1966 of Nauru is a Nauruan citizen.

72 Persons born on or after 31 January 1968

- (1) A person born on or after the thirty-first day of January One thousand nine hundred and sixty-eight is a Nauruan citizen if his parents were Nauruan citizens at the date of his birth.
- (2) A person born on or after the thirty-first day of January One thousand nine hundred and sixty-eight is a Nauruan citizen if he is born of a marriage between a Nauruan citizen and a Pacific Islander and neither parent has within seven days after the birth of that person exercised a right prescribed by law in the manner prescribed by law to determine that that person is not a Nauruan citizen.

73 Persons born in Nauru on or after 31 January 1968

A person born in Nauru on or after the thirty-first day of January One thousand nine hundred and sixty-eight is a Nauruan citizen if, at the date of his birth he would not, but for the provisions of this Article, have the nationality of any country.

74 Women Persons married to Nauruan Citizens

A woman, not being a Nauruan citizen, who is married to a Nauruan citizen or has been married to a man who was, throughout the subsistence of the marriage, a Nauruan citizen, is entitled, upon making application in such manner as is prescribed by law, to become a Nauruan citizen.

75 Powers of Parliament regarding citizenship

- (1) Parliament may make provision for the acquisition of Nauruan citizenship by persons who are not otherwise eligible to become Nauruan citizens under the provisions of this Part.
- (2) Parliament may make provision for depriving a person of his Nauruan citizenship being a person who has acquired the nationality of another country otherwise than by marriage.
- (3) Parliament may make provision for depriving a person of his Nauruan citizenship being a person who is a Nauruan citizen otherwise than by reason of Article 71 or Article 72.
- (4) Parliament may make provision for the renunciation by a person of his Nauruan citizenship.

76 Interpretation

- (1) In this Part, "Pacific Islander" has, except as otherwise prescribed by law, the same meaning as in the Nauruan Community Ordinance 1956-1966 of Nauru.
- (2) A reference in this Part to the citizenship of the parent of a person at the date of that person's birth shall, in relation to a person one of whose parents died before the birth of that person, be construed as a reference to the citizenship of the parent at the time of the parent's death.

PART IX — EMERGENCY POWERS

77 Declaration of an emergency

- (1) If the President is satisfied, that a grave emergency exists whereby the security or economy of Nauru is threatened he may, by public proclamation, declare that a state of emergency exists.
 - (2) A declaration of emergency lapses—
 - (a) if the declaration is made when Parliament is sitting, at the expiration of seven days after the date of publication of the declaration; or

- (b) in any other case, at the expiration of twenty-one days after the date of publication of the declaration, unless it has in the meantime been approved by a resolution of Parliament approved by a majority of the members of Parliament present and voting.

- (3) The President may at any time revoke a declaration of emergency by public proclamation.
- (4) A declaration of emergency that has been approved by a resolution of Parliament under clause (2) of this Article remains, subject to the provisions of clause (3) of this Article, in force for twelve months or such shorter period as is specified in the resolution.
- (5) A provision of this Article that a declaration of emergency lapses or ceases to be in force at a particular time does not prevent the making of a further such declaration whether before or after that time.

78 Emergency powers

- (1) During the period during which a declaration of emergency is in force, the President may make such Orders as appear to him to be reasonably required for securing public safety, maintaining public order or safeguarding the interests or maintaining the welfare of the community.
- (2) An order made by the President under clause (1) of this Article:
 - (a) has effect notwithstanding anything in Part II of this Constitution or in Article 94;
 - (b) is not invalid in whole or in part by reason only that it provides for any matter for which provision is made under any law or because of inconsistency with any law; and
 - (c) lapses when the declaration of emergency lapses unless in the meantime the order is revoked by a resolution of Parliament approved by a majority of the members of Parliament present and voting.

- (3) The revocation or lapsing of an order made by the President under clause (1) of this Article does not affect the previous operation of that order, the validity of anything done or omitted to be done under it or any offence committed or penalty or punishment incurred.

79 Restriction on detention

- (1) For the purposes of this Article there shall be an advisory board consisting of the Chief Justice, one person nominated by the Chief Justice and one person nominated by the Cabinet.
- (2) A person detained under an Order under Article 78 shall, as soon as practicable, be informed of the reasons for his detention and be brought before the advisory board and permitted to make representations against his detention.
- (3) No person shall be detained under an Order under Article 78 for a period exceeding three months unless that person has been brought before the advisory board and any representations made by him have been considered by it and it has within that period determined that there is sufficient cause for the detention.

PART X — GENERAL

80 Grant of pardon Prerogative of Mercy

The President may—

- (a) grant a pardon, either free or subject to lawful conditions, to a person convicted of an offence;
 - (b) grant to a person a respite, either indefinite or for a specified period, of the execution of a punishment imposed on that person for an offence;
 - (c) substitute a less severe form of punishment for any punishment imposed on a person for an offence; or
 - (d) remit the whole or a part of a punishment imposed on a person for an offence or of a penalty or forfeiture on account of an offence.

- (5) A proposed law to alter this Constitution shall not receive the certificate of the Speaker under Article 47 unless it is accompanied by a certificate under the hand of the Clerk of Parliament that the provisions of clause (2) of this Article have been complied with and, if it is a proposed law to which clause (3) of this Article applies, by a certificate under the hand of a person prescribed by law stating that it has been approved as provided by that clause.

PART XI — TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

85 Existing laws

- (1) A law in force in Nauru immediately before Independence Day continues in force, subject to this Constitution and to any amendment of that law made by a law enacted under this Constitution or by order under clause (6) of this Article, until repealed by a law enacted under this Constitution.
 - (2) A law which has not been brought into force in Nauru before Independence Day may, subject to this Constitution and to any amendment of that law made by law, be brought into force on or after Independence Day and a law brought into force under this clause continues in force subject as aforesaid, until repealed by a law enacted under this Constitution.
 - (3) Clause (1) of this Article does not apply to the Nauru Act 1965 of the Commonwealth of Australia, other than sections 4 and 53 of that Act, or to an Act of the Commonwealth of Australia that immediately before Independence Day extended to Nauru as a Territory of that Commonwealth.
 - (4) The Constitutional Convention Ordinance 1967 of Nauru shall not be amended so as to affect the membership of the Constitutional Convention established under that Ordinance.

- (5) Where a matter that, under this Constitution, is to be prescribed or otherwise provided for by law, is prescribed or otherwise provided for by a law continued in force by clause (1) or (2) of this Article, that matter has, on and after Independence Day, effect as if it had also been prescribed or provided for by a law enacted under this Constitution.
- (6) For the purposes of bringing the provisions of an existing law into accord with the provisions of this Constitution (other than Part II. of this Constitution) the President may, except as otherwise prescribed by law, within a period of two years after Independence Day, make, by order published in the Government Gazette, such adaptations, whether by way of modification of, addition to or omission from those provisions, as he deems necessary or expedient and an order so made has effect, or shall be deemed to have effect, from and including such date, not being a date before Independence Day, as is specified in the order.

86 Adaptation of existing laws

- (1) Subject to this Constitution, a reference in a law continued in force by clause (1) or (2) of Article 85 to—
 - (a) the Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia; or
 - (b) the Minister of State for Territories of the Commonwealth of Australia,shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be read as a reference to the President.
 - (2) Subject to this Constitution, a reference in a law continued in force by clause (1) or (2) of Article 85 to the Administrator of the Territory of Nauru shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be read as a reference to the President or where responsibility for the administration of that law is assigned to a Minister under Article 23, to that Minister.
 - (3) Subject to this Constitution, a reference in a law continued in force by clause (1) or (2) of Article 85 to the Administrator of the Territory of Nauru acting in accordance with the advice of the Executive Council of the Territory of Nauru shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be read as a reference to the Cabinet.

87 Existing public officers

- (1) Subject to this Constitution and any law, a person who immediately before Independence Day hold; or is acting in a public office shall, on and after Independence Day, hold or act in that office or the corresponding office established by this Constitution on the same terms and conditions as those on which he holds or is acting in the public office immediately before Independence Day.
- (2) Nothing in this Article shall be construed as applying to a person who immediately before Independence Day holds or is acting in the office of Administrator, Public Service Commissioner or Official Secretary.

88 Existing legal proceedings

All legal proceedings pending or incomplete in the Central Court of the Island of Nauru immediately before Independence Day shall stand removed to the Supreme Court, which shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the proceedings and the judgments and orders of the Central Court of the Island of Nauru given or made before Independence Day shall have the same force and effect as if they had been delivered or made by the Supreme Court.

89 The first Parliament

- (1) The persons who were elected at the election conducted during January, One thousand nine hundred and sixty-eight at the instance of the Constitutional Convention to become members of the Legislative Assembly of Nauru on Independence Day are members of the first Parliament and shall be deemed to have been elected in accordance with this Constitution.
 - (2) The first Parliament came into existence on Independence Day under the name of the Legislative Assembly of Nauru and continues under the name of Parliament from and including the date on which this clause comes into operation.
 - (3) The first Parliament shall, unless sooner dissolved, continue for a period of three years from and including Independence Day and shall then stand dissolved.

- (4) In this Article, "Constitutional Convention" means the Constitutional Convention established under the Constitutional Convention Ordinance 1967 of Nauru.

90 Powers privileges and immunities of Parliament

Until otherwise declared by Parliament, the powers, privileges and immunities of Parliament and of its members and committees shall be those of the House of Commons of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of its members and committees as at the commencement of this Constitution.

91 Vesting of property, etc.

- (1) All property and assets which, immediately before Independence Day, were vested in the Administrator of the Territory of Nauru or in the Administration of the Territory of Nauru, vest in the Republic of Nauru.
- (2) All rights, liabilities and obligations of the Administrator of the Territory of Nauru or of the Administration of the Territory of Nauru, whether arising out of contract or otherwise, are rights, liabilities and obligations of the Republic of Nauru.

92 Constitutional Convention to continue in existence

- (1) Notwithstanding the coming into force of this Constitution, the Constitutional Convention established under the Constitutional Convention Ordinance 1967 of Nauru shall, subject to this Article, continue in existence during the period of five months after Independence Day or, if the Constitutional Convention approves by resolution a shorter period, during that shorter period.
- (2) The Constitutional Convention shall, in lieu of the powers held by it before Independence Day, have the powers conferred on it by clause (3) of this Article.
- (3) The Constitutional Convention may, during the period referred to in clause (1) of this Article, by resolution approved by a majority of the members of the Constitutional Convention, alter any of the provisions of this Constitution other than this Article and clause (4) of Article 85.

- (4) In this Article, a reference to the members of the Constitutional Convention is a reference to the number of members of which it consists on the day on which the question arises.
