At the APA12th Plenary

Antalya– Republic of Turkey

In the Name of God

Mr. President,
Distinguished Delegates,
Ladies and Gentlemen

It is a great honor for me to have the privilege of addressing this august Meeting of 12th APA Plenary in my capacity as APA Secretary General. I also would like to seize this valuable opportunity to sincerely welcome you the honorable guests of the Grand National Assembly of Turkey to the magnificent resort city of Antalya.

On behalf of all the participating delegations, myself and my colleagues at APA Permanent Secretariat, allow me once again to express my heartfelt gratitude to H.E. Mustafa SENTAP, the APA President and Speaker of the Grand National Assembly of Turkey for his kind invitation of APA delegations to this meeting, state officials and most particularly H.E. Mrs. Asuman ERDOĞAN, the Head of APA Turkish delegation for their excellent organization of this event and generous hospitality extended to us at this beautiful city.

During the past two years, APA, under the leadership of its President from the Grand National Assembly of Turkey, and the Vice-Presidents from different member parliaments, has spared no efforts to uphold solidarity among its members in the course of numerous APA meetings held on different occasions. Therefore, we succeeded in moving toward further realization of parliamentary democracy, as part of our mission by reliance on our collective endeavors and coherence to tackle political, economic and cultural challenges facing our world today.

As regards the new term of APA Presidency, I avail myself of this occasion to express my deep appreciation to the leadership of Grand National Assembly of Turkey for its appropriate decision at the First Executive Council Meeting in Rize, accepting to continue APA presidency for the next two-year term and to hold the 12th Plenary accordingly. In fact, Turkey can be considered as one of the APA members, which has devoted unceasing efforts for the success of our Organization. Therefore, at this juncture, we can rest assured that APA has been accorded with this welcome opportunity to further rejuvenate itself during the next two year under the extended term of leadership of Turkey to face and overcome growing challenges ahead.

Distinguished Delegates,
Ladies and Gentlemen

Considering the theme placed for general debate in the agenda of the 12th Plenary Meeting entitled “The role of multilateral cooperation among Asian parliaments”, I would like to underline that the choice of this theme is timely and of vital importance as an integral part of the inspiration pursued by the APA Founders to introduce a framework of unity for regional cooperation.

In fact, APA, as a regional parliamentary organization should put into practice all its potentials in order to be able to play a leading role in coping with the challenges facing it at regional and global arena. Realization of this objective, within the framework of multilateral strategy, is extensively geared to the concerted efforts of all the APA members, despite pervasiveness of diverse cultural, social and religious visions in this vast continent.

In a nutshell, multilateral cooperation among Asian Parliaments will definitely lead the APA to gain new impetus for further solidarity among its members, thus paving the ground to invigorate parliamentary diplomacy within our region under multilateral mechanism.

Furthermore, I would like to assure you all that my colleagues join me at the APA Secretariat to do our utmost efforts to pursue the APA objectives under the auspices of the APA President and its Vice Presidents in cooperation with all other member parliaments. Against this backdrop, we welcome any comments and suggestions raised by the members for placing in the agenda of various APA Meetings. At the same time, I call on all members to help us in this respect with their active participation and fruitful contribution in different APA meetings.

As you are well aware, the Working Group tasked with the amendment of APA statutory document will convene its first session in the coming month of February in Kuwait. This is a timely decision intended to discuss restructuring of our organization. In fact, we are at a crossroads that calls for extensive contribution of all the members, if our Organization is to maintain the standing that it really deserves within the framework of its regional and global cooperation.

In conclusion, I would like to express my sincere appreciation to Islamic Parliament of Iran and specifically to honorable Dr. Ali LARIJANI, who has rendered full support to the work of APA Secretariat through past 12 years. We are indeed indebted to such valuable commitment toward APA activities.

Thank you for your attention
Dear Hon. Mustafa ŞENTOP, Speaker of the Grand National Assembly of Turkey and President of APA;
Dear Dr. Mohammad Reza MAJIDI, Secretary-General of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly;
Dear Mr. Yavuz Selim KIRAN, Deputy Minister of Ministry of Foreign Affairs (tbc);

Dear colleagues, dear friends,

First of all, I would like to sincerely thank the Asian Parliamentary Assembly for the invitation and the warm welcome here in Antalya.

Multilateralism is and has always been at the heart of the work of the Inter-Parliamentary Union. Before the United Nations, before the League of Nations, before current regional organizations, there was the IPU. In a context of growing tension between States at the end of the 19th century, visionary parliamentarians came together to seek peaceful solutions to issues of international security, promoting political dialogue to build confidence and mutual understanding among peoples and nations.

I am extremely pleased to see that during this 12th Plenary session of APA you will be discussing the role of multilateral cooperation among Asian parliaments. As IPU President, I cannot but applaud this initiative and invite you to take this opportunity to devise concrete avenues for parliamentary action in this relevant domain.

As acknowledged by the global parliamentary community during the most recent IPU Assembly, held in Belgrade in October 2019, today, it is our duty, as parliamentarians, to continue strengthening international law, multilateralism and regional cooperation.

As parliamentarians, we are guarantors of peace and harmony. We have the mandate, and the huge responsibility, of promoting multilateralism and friendship instead of hate.

It is our responsibility to do our utmost to promote dialogue, to build understanding.

Dear colleagues,

I sincerely hope that during this plenary session, we will be able to learn more about existing good practices of co-operation and identify better ways to translate our international and regional commitments into national realities.

I hope that our debates will help Asian parliaments, individually, and also as a regional bloc, to better deliver on priority areas such as:

- Robustly tackling the climate emergency, ratifying and implementing the Paris Agreement on Climate Change and achieving the Sustainable Development Goals.
- Redoubling efforts to achieve gender equality and the political empowerment of women.
- Respecting our commitments in the area of disarmament and non-proliferation, and securing the abolition of weapons of mass destruction.
- Ensuring the ratification and effective implementation at national level of international humanitarian law and human rights instruments as a critical step in ensuring that those entitled to protection actually benefit from it.
- Establishing an effective institutional infrastructure to ensure compliance with international human rights standards, including by setting up national human rights institutions and strengthening cooperation between those institutions and our respective parliaments.

- Making sure that the voice of young people is heard in decision-making, including by creating the necessary platforms and adopting concrete measure for youth participation.

- Combating impunity for international crimes, including through cooperation with international tribunals and the International Criminal Court, in keeping with national law.

Regional cooperation is without a doubt an essential component of multilateralism and contributes to strengthening the international legal order and advancing sustainable peace. APA has a key role to play in this region, including by:

- Actively supporting regional initiatives that aim to promote political dialogue.

- Making use of the tools provided by parliamentary diplomacy to tackle unresolved issues and help build bridges in times of crisis.

- Identifying and disseminating good practices for regional cooperation and formulating proposals for concrete joint action.

- Putting in place mechanisms to help monitor implementation of regional and international commitments.

- Reviewing and strengthening transparency and accountability mechanisms at the regional level.

- Building strategic partnerships at the regional and sub-regional levels to enhance the observance of universal values and norms, while also taking into consideration regional specificities.

- Sharing good practices and enhancing dialogue and cooperation with other regional parliamentary organizations and with the world organization of national parliaments, the IPU.
Supporting the IPU as the global umbrella of parliamentary organizations in its efforts to enhance the coherence and effectiveness of inter-parliamentary cooperation, including in the context of preparations for the Fifth World Conference of Speakers of Parliament in 2020.

Dear colleagues,

Let’s work together and assume our responsibilities. Our duty is to deliver, to achieve concrete results, to turn words into action and definitely to respond to the needs and aspirations of the people. By working together we become stronger.

Thank you.
Speech by H.E. Dr. Ali LARIJANI
Speaker of the Islamic Parliament of Iran

In the Name of God, the Compassionate, the Merciful

His Excellency Mustafa Sentop
Honorable Speakers of Parliaments
Ladies and Gentlemen

I am delighted to have participated in the 12th APA plenary meeting hosted by the friendly and brotherly country of the Republic of Turkey. I would like to sincerely appreciate the efforts and initiatives of the Parliament of the Republic of Turkey, particularly the efforts of my dear brother, His Excellency Mustafa Sentop, the Honorable Speaker of the Grand National Parliament and his colleagues. I hope that this event introduces precious achievements in various economic, political and cultural fields.

Mr. Chairman

In terms of geography, Asia is the biggest and the vastest continent while from a historical perspective, it is the birthplace of the most ancient cultures and civilizations in the world. Hosting more than half of the world’s population and 48 countries, Asia truly epitomizes diversity and plurality. It seems that after a great deal of peaks and troughs in its history, this continent has made distinctive progress in the last four decades.

In the first place, Asian countries have taken successful steps in fields of science and technology. In the second place and in terms of economy, the whole Asia has experienced an exponential growth which could be perceived as stunning in some respects. Notably, Asia in some cases have managed to re-shape the recognized formats of development theories.

In the third place, Asia has arrived at a profounder democratic maturity. Although political changes and shift in Asia have been bruised in some cases, particularly as a result of a number of Western countries’ adventurist inflictions, its diplomatic capacity has grown on balance.
Finally, today the Asia diplomacy possesses one of the most dynamic capacities in the international arena. Emergence of Asian diplomacy is one of the characteristics of the recent four decades. Iran- Russia- Turkey’s role in resolution of Syrian crisis which foiled US and terrorists’ adventures in Syria is a prime example here.

Dear colleagues

The aforementioned characteristics showcase the cultural strength and rich civilizational roots of this old continent. It should be noted that a number of mechanisms have been developed in the recent years, at both governmental and parliamentary levels, that contributed to stronger, more efficacious Asian links and cooperation platforms. APA and SCO are notable examples in this regard with considerable success in fulfillment of their mission of Asian integration.

On this path and considering their cultural and civilizational backgrounds, Asian countries have never perceived themselves as confronting the West. This is because economic, cultural and political cooperation would serve the various interests of the parties and at the same time greatly contribute to sustainable security and global peace if rooted in mutual respect. However, the question is: did some of the Western powers not attempt to confront Asia?

Unfortunately, we occasionally have directly witnessed the hostile behaviors of the West. There is no shortage of examples. Waging a tariff war against China, sanctioning Russia, sanctioning Iran, creation of issues for Turkey and blackmailing some a number of regional countries reveal that Western countries with the prime example of the US can’t tolerate to see that Asia has found its genuine standing. But, will they come out successful in this confrontation?

Excellencies,

A look at the past trends of such stone-wall ing conducts indicate that while these adventurist efforts to push back the other parties may be intrusive and create nuisances on a temporary basis, they help the target parties realize their shortcomings to have stronger rebounds. For example, they have been rambling on Iran’s nuclear program for 2 decades. But have they managed to arrest the development of nuclear science by Iranians? The answer is a big no. Today, in spite of the US spiteful economic pressures, Iranian experts have achieved a new generation of nuclear technology. Russia is another example. Have they managed to downgrade Russian role in international arena? On the same note, have they managed to restrict China’s role in the global power structure via playing the game of tariffs? These examples clearly demonstrate that in the face of all organized confrontations, Asia is going to play a leading role in developments of the modern world.

Mr. Chairman

We can ill afford ignoring one point. Terrorist operations in the region were primarily born out of the US supports. Creation of intrusive diversions for Asian states was the first act. In the past, the courageous people of Iraq and the people and government of Syria have effectively and bravely dealt with ISIS and other terrorist incarnations. It is certain other countries will help each other in tackling terrorism and averting their resurgence. The second act of US confrontational approach to Asia lies in unsettling the region in a different manner to sap the Asian countries of their development-oriented energy. Creation of a fake dualism atmosphere (either with us (the US and the West) or turbulence) is solely for the purpose of overwhelming the wills of Asian countries to help the West recover its dominance on oil resources and other assets of such countries, something that was the case in past centuries. Moreover, to create breathing room for the Zionist regime when there is a growing hatred of this regime on a consistent basis and to undermine the support for this wronged nation, parallel fronts of internal conflicts and engagements are opened in other countries. This requires Asian countries to arrange more proactive mechanisms if they wish to take stronger steps. In this regard, creation of structures for Asian trade, Asian monetary exchanges, Asian security-military conventions and Asian science & technology cooperation gains paramount importance.

Mr. Chairman,

In light of our past experience and informed by the past trends, I believe that this assembly could demand the respective governments to follow up more active mechanisms. The plenary session can undoubtedly draft the required documents for such cooperation arrangements.

In this regard, the Islamic Consultative Assembly of the Islamic Republic of Iran has exercised efforts to strengthen multilateral cooperation at APA. The case in point is presenting the draft resolution of “increased cooperation among the APA members to preserve and maintain multilateralism” during the session of the Standing Committee on Political Affairs in Isfahan and this year’s meeting of the Executive Committee in Turkish Rize. Through consensual adoption of this resolution, I hope that the parliaments of member states convey this clear message to the region and even to the world that APA strongly supports a discourse based on understanding, cooperation and common interests to further boost and disseminate multilateralism.

I again avail myself of the opportunity to express my gratitude to Turkish Parliament and particularly to my brother, His Excellency Mustafa Sentop for their hospitality and efforts.

أخاطبكم للمرة الثانية بعد اجتماع مجلسكم التنفيذي الأول الذي عقد في ريزا والذي أوصى بمنح مجلس الشورى في دولة قطر العضوية الكاملة في الجمعية. ونتطلع أن يعتمد اجتماعكم اليوم في التوصية لتنخرط في أعمال الجمعية وأنشطةها كأعضاء فاعلين فيها ووصفها المنظومة البرلمانية الهامة التي تمثل أصوات شعوب القارة الآسيوية وتعمل بجد على تحقيق أهدافها السامية والطموحة خدمة لمصالحها.

إن إنضمامنا للجمعية ينبع من حرص دولة قطر بقيادة حضرة صاحب السمو الشيخ تميم بن حمد آل ثاني أمير البلاد المنفرد "حفظه الله" على دعم العمل المشترك داخل المنظمات الإقليمية والدولية والتي أصبحت دولة قطر عضواً فيها تماشياً مع أهداف رؤية قطر الوطنية 2030. وكذلك حرص مجلس الشورى في قطر على ترجمة هذا التوجه في إطار التعاون البرلماني مع المنظمات البرلمانية الإقليمية والدولية.
ويستعدنا أن نتدارس في هذا الاجتماع معاً سبيل تعزيز العمل الآسيوي المشترك من خلال التعاون البرلماني ووفقاً لجدول الأعمال المعروض.

وتبرز أهمية جمعيتنا هذه وأعمالها لما تشهده بعض مناطق القارة الآسيوية أكبر قارة في العالم من أوضاع أمنية مضطربة من مظاهر الإرهاب والتطرف والفساد والجريمة المنظمة العابرة للحدود وتغيير المناخ وانتشار أسلحة الدمار الشامل وغيرها من التحديات. وللʃابهة هذه التحديات الجسام كان لزاماً وجود منصة برلمانية آسيوية للتشاور حول هذه المهامات والوصول إلى حلول مرضية لها.

ولزاماً علينا أن نقدر بوجود مثل هذه المشاكل الكبيرة في القارة الآسيوية ولكنها ليست مستعصية ويمكن إيجاد حلول لها. ووجود هذه المشاكل ينبغي أن لا يكون سبباً لليأس ولكن يجب أن يتم دافعاً لبذل مزيد من الجهود المشتركة لحلها.
إن مهمتنا كبرلمانيين أن نساهم في إيجاد خطاب برلماني إنساني جامع يركز على المشاركات الجماعية العابرة للدول الآسيوية وهي هموم الناس في العيش بكرامة وأمن واكتفاء، وهموهم في التصالح مع الطبيعة والتعايش مع كوارثها، وهموهم أيضاً في تأمين مستقبل كريم لهم ولأبنائهم.

إن الأعمال التي سيتم تناولها وتدارسها خلال أعمال اللجنة التنفيذية والجمعية العامة في اجتماعاتنا هذه من شأنها أن تثني العمل البرلماني وتساعد على تقرب وجهات النظر والتصورات تجاه العديد من القضايا ذات الاهتمام المشترك بين الدول والبرلمانات الأعضاء. ونحن في مجلس الشورى القطري نعتقد بأن التعددية الفعالة هي المفتاح للعديد من المشاكل العالمية التي يعاني منها عالم اليوم. يجب أن تحتل الجهود الرامية إلى منع نشوب النزاعات وتسويتها بالوسائل السلمية، مرتبة عالية بين أولوياتنا، وأن يستمر دعم الجمعية لنضال الشعب الفلسطيني ضد الاحتلال الإسرائيلي في كل جوانبه لتحرير أرضه وإقامة دولته الفلسطينية المستقلة وعاصمتها القدس الشرقية.
إنهنا لم نكن في يوم من الأيام أحوج إلى التعاون والتعاوض من يومنا هذا، فبعد أكثر من عقد من الزمان على ولادة الجمعية تزداد التحديات صعبة وتنتشر الفوضى ويتفشى الفساد والفقر الأموي الذي يتطلب منا دعم الجهود الكبيرة التي تبذلها جماعتنا في سبيل تطوير التعاون بين دول آسيا وسعيها لتنمية أواصر الصداقة البرلمانية لدعم فرص السلام وتعزيز الأمن والاستقرار في المنطقة والعالم.

وأود أن أتقدم بالشكر لكم ممثلين المجموعة الآسيوية البرلمانية على اشتمال جدول أعمال هذا الاجتماع من مواضيع مهمة ومن أهمها مكافحة الفساد الذي هو أساس المناشط للدول والشعوب. وهنا أود إفادكم بأننا في قطر قد استضفنا قبل يومين الاجتماع السابع للمنظمة العالمية للبرلمانيين ضد الفساد. وأؤكد لكم بعد انتخابي رئيساً للمنظمة العالمية للبرلمانيين ضد الفساد باسم هذه المنظمة بأننا معكم وسنعمل كل جهد بالتعاون مع الجمعية لمحاربة الفساد وهي آفة
الأمم والشعوب. بمحاربة الفساد سنتصر على أمور كثيرة ووجود الفساد هناك مشاكل كثيرة.

لقد ظلت دولة قطر ملتزمة بضرورة التعاون والعمل المشترك في مواجهة التحديات العابرة للحدود وفي هذا الإطار أقامت دولة قطر شراكات مع العديد من أجهزة الأمم المتحدة. وتُعد دولة قطر من الدول السباقة في تقديم المساعدات الإنسانية والإغاثية، فعلى سبيل المثال مُؤُول صندوق قطر للتنمية خلال عام 2018 مشروع في قطاعات التعليم والصحة والتمكين الاقتصادي وتوفر فرص العمل في أكثر من 70 دولة حول العالم معظمها في القارة الآسيوية. كما أنشأت قطر مؤسسة أيادي الخير نحو آسيا، وتعمل في كمبوديا واندونيسيا وأفغانستان وباكستان وبنغلاديش والأراضي الفلسطينية ولبنان والهند الأساسي منها هو تحسين نوعية التعليم والرعاية الصحية في البلدان الآسيوية من خلال بناء القدرات وتشجيع التعليم.

Esteemed Speakers of Parliament,
Esteemed Parliamentarians,
Distinguished Guests,
Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,

It is a great pleasure for me to host you, our distinguished participants at the 12th Plenary Session of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly here in Antalya.

As you might know, we also hosted the Asian Parliamentary Assembly Plenary Session in both 2017 and 2018. Being the host of the last three Plenary Sessions and organizing the First Executive Council Meeting of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly in Rize on October 25-28, 2019, are the indication of the great importance that we attribute to this Assembly.

As the Grand National Assembly of Turkey, we have put great efforts into strengthening our inter-parliamentary relations. Hereby, I would like to extend my gratitude to our Members of the Turkish Group to Asian Parliamentary Assembly and to everyone who have labored in the organization of these meetings.
As the members of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly, we shall discuss important issues in line with our goals of increasing stability and prosperity in the Asian continent throughout our plenary sessions. It is my personal belief that we shall conduct fruitful meetings and that the consultations that we make here shall prove important contributions to the construction of a new world in which our countries and our people can live in peace and comfort.

Distinguished Guests,

As the Asian Parliamentary Assembly, our fundamental purpose is to strengthen the inter-parliamentary collaboration in the subjects of economy and social relations, along with peace and prosperity. Through the cooperation that we shall realize, we must show our determination in providing additional power to traditional diplomacy and having an important role in solving the problems of the Asian continent. Within this context, we must shoulder an important responsibility.

Along with positive developments, our continent faces many issues and challenges. Sadly, not order, but chaos prevails in the contemporary world.

As it is so in many other parts of the world, a portion of Asia still has to face many hardships such as starvation, contagious diseases and natural disasters, along with new ecological problems. On the other hand, each day, with growing intensity, we have to face issues with severe humane outcomes such as wars, conflicts, proxy wars and terrorism.

As Turkey, our efforts are spent to shape the dynamics that surround us in line with peace, prosperity and stability.

We spend the greatest efforts in ensuring that the civil war in our neighbor Syria comes to an end and the stability is renewed. According to the July 2019 data of the UN Refugee Agency, we are currently hosting almost 3.6 million Syrians in our country. Our fight against the terrorist organizations of DAESH, PKK and YPG that threaten the future of Syria continues without interruption. Accordingly, our efforts to return our Syrian siblings to the regions where we have wiped out the terrorist organizations in the most secure and healthy manner shall ultimately provide fruitful.

Today, terrorism is the common scourge of the world, regardless of geography. Many countries present here in this Assembly had close experiences with the brutal examples of this truth. With the consciousness of this truth, we as Turkey are on the front lines of fight against international terrorism. In order to mobilize the international community, we take concrete steps in the fight against the diseased understandings that threaten the world peace and the peace of the peoples, such as terrorism, xenophobia, racism and Islamophobia.

The fight against terrorism can succeed only if it employs a sincere and comprehensive approach. As a country that fights many terrorist organizations and that gives no respite to them, we would like to share our experiences with you and to establish strong cooperation.

We are aware that the FETÖ terrorist organization that attempted a coup d'état in our country in 2016 is operational in many of your countries disguised as educational organizations, NGOs etc. I would like to especially remind you that this organization is a threat to your countries as much as it is for Turkey.

No terrorist organization is different from the other. What is DAESH, so the FETÖ and PKK/PYD/YPG are. All pursue dishonorable and cursed intentions that shall prevent people from living as humans.

At this point, we totally reject the discrimination between the terrorists as “that are of use and that are not”. And we expect all of our friends to act with the awareness of this truth. We believe that the voices that rise when DAESH is at stake, should also rise for PKK, FETÖ and others.

In another bleeding wound of our region, the issue of Palestine, we exhibit an active stance. Occupation, oppression and injustice are not the destiny set for Palestine. We see it as the requisite of human dignity to be always by the side of the nations of the world that have been subjected to injustice. And thus, we invite all countries to respect the resolutions of the United Nations and to respect the historical and legal status of Jerusalem.

As it has always been so, we shall continue to support the efforts to establish peace and cease violence in Afghanistan.

We support the solution of the Kashmir issue through dialogue between Pakistan and India and on the basis of the United Nations resolutions, as well as in line with the expectations of the People of Kashmir. We closely follow the situation in which the Rohingya people are in, and wish that this human drama ended as soon as possible.

Of course, the humanitarian issues and conflicts in our continent are not limited with these. We act and shall continue to act with the understanding that such conflicts should be prevented primarily in Asia, our home and in the wholly wide world and they should be solved with peaceful methods. In addition, we shall ensure that humans, the most honorable of the created, live in the most dignified and decent manner.

As a manifestation of this understanding, we currently hold the co-presidency of the mediation groups within the United Nations, the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe and the Organization of Islamic Cooperation.

As I have underscored in the P20 Parliamentary Speakers' Summit, it is my personal belief that the understanding of “Let Humans Live So the World May Live” shall be the remedy for the peace and salvation of all humanity and it can stop the blood and tears in our geography.

Distinguished Participants,

The center of geopolitics and economics in the world is rapidly shifting to Asia. In every region of the Asia continent, there is a remarkable process of development and advancement. Consequently, since the Asian continent is a rising power in the global politics and economy, some call the 21st century as the “Asian Century”.

Turkey, an inseparable part of both the Asian and European continents, has recently given start to a new initiative called “Asia Anew” as it befits to the ongoing comprehensive transformation within Turkey and the bigger Eurasian geography.

With this initiative, Turkey aims to benefit from the multifaceted dynamism that has appeared throughout Asia in a better and more productive manner, and in turn, to contribute to it.

In essence, we observe the “Asian Parliamentary Assembly” as one of the multilateral parliamentary dimensions of our new initiative and consider it extreme importance.

Turkey, within the framework of its increasing opportunities and capabilities, is implementing its foreign policy in line with the principle of “Peace at Home, Peace in Country” and with an “Enterprising and Humanitarian” approach to ensure security, stability and prosperity both at its close surroundings and at an international level.

In accordance with our “Enterprising and Humanitarian Foreign Policy” understanding, we take initiatives and spend efforts to provide solutions to the problems in our region and in the world. Our purpose is to make contributions to strengthen peace, stability and prosperity.

With this understanding, we have pushed our bilateral relations with many countries to advanced levels. And with so many countries, we have established High Level Cooperation Council mechanisms, including some of our guests that are attending this meeting. With our “Asia Anew” initiative, we shall increase this number.
It is our belief that regional ownership understanding is of importance in order to provide definite solutions to the conflicts in our immediate surroundings.

Within this framework, we are leading trilateral and quadrilateral cooperation processes and regional initiatives. We assume active role and provide contributions to international organizations and platforms.

As Turkey, we are not solely observing Asia from angle of politics and security. We place extreme importance in strengthening economic, cultural and social relations.

It is our wish to increase cooperation with all countries lying on the routes that connect Asia and Europe in the fields of infrastructure, customs and logistics.

Without a doubt, reviving the Modern Silk Road will provide significant acceleration to the prosperity and development of our region. Our Trans-Caspian East-West-Middle Corridor Initiative that we are leading for a long time is a manifestation of this understanding.

East-West-Middle Corridor Initiative is naturally synergistic with the Belt and Road Initiative put forth by People’s Republic of China. Thus, one of the routes within the Belt and Road Initiative lies on Turkey. Therefore, these initiatives are not alternatives of each other, but they are complementary.

Baku-Tbilisi-Kars Railroad Project that began in October 2017 forms the backbone of our Middle Corridor initiative. When this route reaches its full capacity, it will have an indispensable quality in reviving the Silk Road.

Again, within this scope and in line with Turkey’s long-term infrastructure development strategy, our other megaprojects are to be either completed or currently in implementation. Along with “Marmaray,” Istanbul Yavuz Sultan Selim Bridge, Osmangazi Tunnel, Istanbul Airport that will be the world’s biggest airport when all of its stages are completed became operational last year on October 29.

In addition to all of these projects, other megaprojects currently in works such as the three-level tunnel under Bosphorus Strait, the Çanakkale Bridge, Edirne- Kars High Speed Railway Projects, the construction of Filyos, Çandarlı and Mersin ports will ensure that the vast geography surrounding Turkey is accessed more easily and productively.

Our humanitarian foreign policy is revealed in the opportunities that we provide to more than 3.6 million Syrians who took refuge in our country. Our country that hosts the biggest number of refugees in the world and ranking in the first place in humanitarian aid is the world’s most generous country in the world from the aspect of the ratio of the assistance that we provide with respect to our national income. We take pride in this.

However, it is sadly a fact that the contribution of the international community in this field is way below the expectations. Within this context, I believe all countries must take responsibility and share the burden with a humane sensibility.

My Dear Friends,

Contemporary problems require active multilateralism, regional connectivity and mutual efforts for coming up with solutions. The issues that we face are impossible to fight alone at a national, regional and global scale.

Regrettably, some of the international organizations today, and especially the United Nations are very far from realizing their mission foreseen in their purpose of establishment. As a matter of fact, His Excellency, Recep Tayyip Erdoğan, our President of the Republic expresses this situation with his protest, “The World is Bigger than Five” and this protest justly resonates with many.
Just at this point, I would like to submit to your attention once again the necessity to review the international platforms’ and organizations’ reasons of existence.

Therefore, it is the most rational way to consider the international politics and global balances with dynamic and real institutions, not with the antiquated organizations of a world that is no longer in existence. Therefore, I believe that it is of significance and crucial to evaluate the parliamentary diplomacy processes and inter-parliamentary summits that have recently gained momentum from this perspective.

The intensity of the search in the parliamentary diplomacy field shows the need for not only the governments, but also for the people and the public to become actors in the field of diplomacy.

Really, it is no longer possible to conduct international relationships only by the conventional means in a globalizing world.

Parliamentary diplomacy offers a new opportunity for our countries and peoples. Parliamentary diplomacy gives us a much more flexible and broader range of action. I believe that we should conduct our relations with respect, dialogue and cooperation by means of parliamentary diplomacy. I think that parliamentary diplomacy also contributes to strengthening the relations between our countries and resolving conflicts with its positive agenda.

Today, a new language and understanding of diplomacy is needed for a new world. As parliaments, we have to play a much more important role in this understanding.

At this point, I would like to draw your attention to a fact. We see that even the oldest of the organizations that we have founded as the institutional actors of international relations and established for the conduct of traditional diplomacy have left their seventieth years behind. Unfortunately, there is no intergovernmental organization that has survived the first and second world wars, perhaps the bloodiest periods in world history.
On the other hand, there is the Inter-Parliamentary Union that celebrates its hundred and thirtieth anniversary this year, somehow surviving the difficult times I mentioned and contributing to the reconstruction of the collapsed order each time. This shows that if peace and justice are to be ensured in the world, this can be achieved by us, parliamentarians who are the representatives of their peoples. We all have to take on responsibility to create a new language of diplomacy by adapting to the changing world.

Dear Speakers of Parliament,
Dear Parliamentarians,
Dear Guests,

Before I finish my speech, I would like to say in this Asian Parliamentary Assembly, before you, dear parliamentarians that we disapprove the decision that the US Senate made about the Armenian allegations by ignoring international law and distorting historical facts.

This decision, which has no legal value and will not bind the Senate after the next election period, is obviously part of a dirty political game. This is a worthless effort of reading history based on the simple interests of arbitrary and everyday politics.

Our country does not refrain from confronting history. On the contrary, the truth must be revealed with all its presence. The imposition of a party's opinion as absolute truth does not reveal the truth.

It is a duty of humanity to respect the memory of all people who lost their lives in the period leading up to World War I. Right lessons should be learned from these events. To achieve this, historical facts need to be presented by impartial, independent and respected historians.

Turkey has opened its rich archive to all researchers, including Armenian researchers. Unfortunately, Armenia has not shown the same level of sincerity in this regard. It is not worthy of any parliament, including the US Senate, to obey the black propaganda and racist approaches by hiding information and documents.

It should be noted that Turkey will resolutely continue to protect its national interests in its region and world security, without considering this decision of the US Senate and similar means of pressure under any circumstances.

Dear Guests,

Next year is the 100th anniversary of the establishment of the Grand National Assembly of Turkey, which is of great importance for our nation and state.

We want to organize celebrations on a wider scale to make sure that the spirit of hundred years ago is understood better.

In near future, our invitation will be delivered to you through official channels. However, I would like to express also in here that we would be so glad to welcome Your Excellencies and your delegates in the celebrations to be organized in Turkey on 23rd of April as an indication of our brotherhood.

With these feelings and thoughts, as the President of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly, I hope that the meetings, consultations and debates will open up new horizons for us and give us good luck.

I welcome you all again and greet you with my best wishes.

Madam Chairperson,
Distinguished Delegates,
Ladies and Gentlemen,

It is a great honor and privilege for me as Secretary General, to address APA 12th Plenary Meeting, and presenting my report on the latest activities and outcomes of the APA Standing Committees and Executive Council meetings during the year 2019.

At the outset, let me congratulate you Madam Chairperson and the Grand National Assembly of Turkey for presiding over this important meeting of 12th APA Plenary Session. I am confident that through your strong leadership and wisdom, we will accomplish objectives set for this meeting.

Allow me once again to take this opportunity to express on behalf of myself and my colleagues in the APA Permanent Secretariat, our deepest appreciation to the state officials and the Grand National Assembly of Turkey, who took the burden of hosting our meeting through excellent organization and unique hospitality at the magnificent province of Antalya.
Madam Chairperson,

Distinguished Delegates,

In year 2019, under the presidency of the Republic of Turkey and leadership of four APA vice presidents, we succeed to hold the following Standing Committees and Executive Council Meetings:

1- The Standing Committee on Social and Cultural Affairs was held in Bangkok, the Kingdom of Thailand, from 12 to 15 February. The Committee adopted 13 draft resolutions. Ten draft resolutions were discussed and adopted by the Committee and three new draft resolutions presented by Thailand and Kuwait, were adopted by the Committee in principal and its discussion deferred to the next Standing Committee meeting in year 2020.

In Bangkok, we held also the first meeting of the Working Group on Asian Parliament with participation of all interested APA members. Iran as vice president and the Chairman of Standing Committee on Political Affairs chaired the meeting.

2- The Standing Committee on Economic and Sustainable Development was held in Nareyan-Mar, the Russian Federation, from 18 to 21 April. In this Committee, we have seven draft resolutions. Five resolutions were discussed and adopted by the committee and consideration of the draft resolution on “Water and Sanitation in Asia for All” was deferred to the next standing Committee meeting. Kuwait as chair of the Working Group on Energy Market was tasked to merge two draft resolutions on Energy.

Working groups on Green Finance, Energy Market and Water Crisis, hold also their meetings in Nareyan-Mar.

3- The Standing Committee on Political Affairs was held in Isfahan, Islamic Republic of Iran, from 25-28 June 2019. At this Committee, we have 9-draft resolution. Seven draft resolution, were discussed and adopted by consensus and a new draft resolution was introduced by the Iranian delegation. This draft resolution was welcomed by member parliaments and the chair stated that amendments to this resolution would be considered during next meeting of the Standing Committee. On draft resolution, “Towards an Asian Parliament” delegation of Pakistan introduced substantive amendments and several delegations debated different aspects of the Asian Parliament in general. The chairperson concluded that what emerges from expressed views is that we need
AP but there are divergent of views, which need more time to focus on, during future meetings. Therefore, consideration of this draft resolution deferred to the next Standing Committee meeting.

In Isfahan, we had the Second Session of the Working Group on Asian Parliament. At the meeting of WG on AP, the chair and several delegation presented their remarks. The chair concluded it is important that the WG-AP under auspicious of Standing Committee on Political Affairs and with APA Secretariat functioning as its Secretariat, reach a consensus on the roadmap and move toward AP.

4- The Standing Committee on Budget and Planning was held in Baghdad, Republic of Iraq, from 3 to 5 September. In this Committee, we have “draft Resolution on Planning APA Budget”. At this meeting, I as Secretary-General briefed the Standing Committee on the latest decisions and developments regarding the issues of planning budget of the APA Permanent Secretariat, under supervision of the Committee. I stated even if all active member parliaments pay their contribution based on the current agreed model of payment, the Secretariat hardly could survive and I appealed to all delegations to choose a pragmatic and constructive approach in this regard.

5-The First APA Executive Council meeting was held in Rize, Republic of Turkey, from 25 to 28 October. At this meeting, Turkey generously accepts the request to host the 12th APA Plenary meeting and Presidency of 2020-2021.

At this meeting, membership of Parliament of Qatar and Timor-Leste were considered and unanimously adopted by the Council and recommended to the 12th Plenary for the final approval.

On the issue of Vice-Presidents for 2020, Council of Representatives of the Kingdom of Bahrain announced the willingness to host the next Standing Committee on Economic and Sustainable Developments as Vice-President. The meeting welcomed and adopted the offer.

Membership of APA to the Group of Friends of the United Nations Alliance of Civilizations (UN AOC) was also adopted at this meeting and the Secretariat was task to follows up the procedure for membership with UNAOC.

Finally, in Rize, we establish the Working Group on Statutory Documents initiated by the Russian Federation and supported by all member parliaments. The purpose of this Working Group is to update the Statutory Documents of APA in order to turn its work into a more orderly and effective system. The Working Group on Statutory Documents comprised of 8 selected member parliaments and Kuwait as chairman will host the first meeting in February 2020.

Madam Chairperson,

Ladies and Gentlemen,

I reported to this August Assembly, main achievements and activities of the APA during the year 2019. I would like also to use this opportunity and highlight dynamic of our Organization in year 2020.

As I reported to you, after more than one decade APA member parliaments in Rize decided to update APA Statutory Documents by establishing the Working Group on APA Statutory Documents. I believe it is a very important step forward and it is a great opportunity for the APA to streamline and revitalize its Statutory Documents and makes them more effective in a way to enable us to play a more active role in inter parliamentary diplomacy of Asia and in the world in years to come. During the last decade, APA confronted some challenges that we hope by updating the Statutory Documents and turning it to a more orderly and effective system, we could overcome them. Thus, I invite and encourage all APA members in particular members of the Working Group to vigorously participate in WG meeting in February 2020 in Kuwait and contribute their share of wisdom to the job of the WG. I would like to assure you that the Secretariat, for its part, follows this process enthusiastically and will play its role actively.

Another important issue in our agenda of year 2020 is the finalization of our deliberation on the “model of payment for planning of the budget of the APA Permanent Secretariat”. The fact is that after several years of discussion we could not yet succeed to adopt a model of payment satisfying all member parliaments and get their full support for implementation. I, as Secretary General and head of the Permanent Secretariat, sincerely believe if we determine to promote the international status of the APA and if we want to have a more effective and a more efficient APA Secretariat, we have to choose a more pragmatic and constructive approach in our deliberation in this regard. As you are aware, we discussed this issue from 2014 and we had some progress on this issue, but we were not able to implement our agreement due to lack of support by all member parliaments. Therefore, I firmly believe it is necessary that in 2020, we finalize our deliberation on this issue and without any further delay, implement it.

In conclusion, I wish to raise an important issue of APA sponsored academic and scientific seminars in 2020. I, as Secretary General and an academic person, from the beginning of my tenure tried to organize academic and scientific seminars within the APA framework. In my opinion, in vast continent of Asia and in APA Agenda, there are many economic, political, social and cultural issues of common interest that we could focus on and share our knowledge and experience on them. Thus, I would like to invite all APA member parliaments who are in a position to sponsor and host an academic or scientific seminar under the APA auspices in year 2020, announce their readiness during the course of 12th Plenary. APA Secretariat is ready to play its role and facilitates the achievements of such important goal.

Thank very much for your attention

Statement

HON. DR. NGUON NHIEL

First Vice-President of the National Assembly of the Kingdom of Cambodia

Head of the Cambodian Parliamentary Delegation

12th Plenary Session of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly

Antalya, Turkey

13–18 December, 2019

- Honorable Mustafa Sentop, Speaker of the Grand National Assembly of Turkey
- Honorable Heads and Members of Delegations of APA Member Parliaments, Observer Countries and Partner Organizations
- Your Excellency Dr. Mohammad Reza Majidi, Secretary General of APA, and colleagues from the Secretariat
- Distinguished Delegates and Friends

1. It is my great pleasure and privilege to be with you here today for the 12th Plenary Session of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly. Taking this opportunity, I wish to express my deep and heartfelt thanks to the government, people and Grand National Assembly of Turkey, in particular the Organizing Committee, for the excellent arrangements and great hospitality extended to the Cambodian delegation since our arrival in this beautiful city of Antalya.
2. I also wish to thank the APA Secretary General and his colleagues for their utmost efforts with great responsibility to facilitate, communicate and prepare documents for the Assembly in an outstanding and professional manner. The success and progress of this Assembly reflects their active contribution as well as the priceless efforts made by APA members, observers and partners in driving this Assembly in a more closely integrated, effective and dynamic manner to address common political, economic and socio-cultural issues in the region.

3. Today, the world faces numerous challenges. These include escalating trade wars, protectionism, unilateralism and increasing geopolitical tensions between major powers which threaten global peace, security, development and people’s well-being with especially adverse impacts on emerging economies. At the same time, we witness grave breaches of international humanitarian law as well as repeated violations of the basic rules, principles and fundamental tenets of international law such as respect for the territorial integrity and political independence of states, non-interference in their internal affairs and the duty of states to uphold international human rights law.

Honorable Speaker, Excellencies, Ladies and Gentlemen

4. Today’s gathering is crucial, relevant and timely for us to discuss, exert greater effort and seek solutions and common positions to address these issues to maintain and strengthen peace and security which are foundations and preconditions for the development and well-being of the people in our region and the world as a whole.

5. Multilateral cooperation is very important, especially among Asian countries where parliamentary diplomacy is an important tool to promote, strengthen and expand our ties under both regional and global frameworks.

6. In recent decades, parliaments have played an increasingly crucial role in diplomacy which is becoming more dynamic. Parliamentary diplomacy was a powerful instrument during the Cold War. In this role, parliaments can help break impasses when governments are unable to make progress. Parliamentary diplomacy can also foster political dialogue during conflicts between countries.
7. Cambodia has used parliamentary diplomacy to promote and enhance bilateral and multilateral cooperation under both legislative and executive frameworks. The Cambodian Parliament has actively participated in and contributed to protecting and maintaining peace, security and economic well-being through membership of international parliamentary organizations. We have hosted various AIPA, APA, APFF and APF meetings in the past and will be chairing the 11th Meeting of Asia-Europe Parliamentary Partnership with the aim of strengthening multilateralism and partnership for sustainable and shared growth. On behalf of the President of the Cambodian National Assembly we would like to extend our cordial invitation to relevant parliaments to take part in this important event.

8. I strongly believe that we need to encourage and promote our roles more actively and dynamically—particularly in the field of parliamentary diplomacy—to demonstrate global governance and international cooperation to ensure sustainable peace and shared prosperity.

9. With peace, political stability and support from friendly countries, Cambodia has achieved significant progress and rapid development in many fields. Over the past two decades, average annual growth has been strong and resilient at around 7 percent. With this remarkable achievement, the poverty rate has declined to well below 10 percent, down sharply from more than 50 percent in 2004. Further declines are expected over the coming years. In such an environment, Cambodia is no longer a low-income country but a lower-middle income country and we aim to have middle-income status by 2030 and be a high-income country by 2050.

Honorable Speaker, Excellencies, Ladies and Gentleman

10. Cambodia has always strictly complied with open, inclusive and effective multilateralism based on rules-based principles. Under the current legislature, Cambodian foreign policy clearly highlights “reforming at home and making friends abroad on the basis of independence.” In this regard, I encourage all APA members to redouble their efforts for mutual understanding with frank and productive discussions.
as well as to enhance multilateral actions to achieve a world with sustained peace, prosperity and equity. We need to abide by rules-based multilateral cooperation to protect and maintain peace and sustainable development.

11. On behalf of the Cambodian delegation, I wish to thank once again the Grand National Assembly of Turkey for its excellent arrangements and great contribution to the progress of APA. With the strong and active engagement of APA members, I strongly believe that this assembly will be even more active, lively and dynamic with new achievements to build an Asia region with peace, prosperity and progress. I would also like to thank the Islamic Republic of Iran, especially its parliament, for its generous financial and technical support for APA operations and work since its inception.

12. Finally, I wish to convey my best wishes to the Honorable Speaker, the organizing committee and especially the government and people of Turkey as well as all Honorable Members, Ladies and Gentlemen for good health and success in your noble mission to serve your nations and peoples.

Thank you for your kind attention.
12th ASIAN PARLIAMENTARY ASSEMBLY PLENARY SESSION

Anatalya, Turkey
December 13-18, 2019

SPEECH

Dr Mohammed Ali Saif,
Head of Delegation
PARLIAMENT OF PAKISTAN
Honourable Speakers, Presiding Officers and Representatives of APA Member and Observer countries,

Ladies and Gentlemen!

It is a great privilege to address this gathering of parliamentary leaders, colleagues and friends from Asia and beyond here in the beautiful city of Antalya.

I am thankful to Turkish National Assembly, especially His Excellency the Speaker, for warm hospitality and excellent arrangements for this 12th Plenary session.

I am pleased to note that APA, which gained great momentum during Pakistan’s presidency, continues to progress under Turkish leadership.

Pakistan’s efforts resulted in two key initiatives. Firstly, the creation of Special Committee on Creation of Asian Parliament, and, secondly, the Working Group on Asian Parliament formed at APA meeting in Gwadar last year.

Keeping in view this plenary’s theme of “The Role of Multilateral Cooperation Among Asian Parliaments”, I like to recall that Pakistan, during its two-year APA presidency always made great efforts to build both multilateral and inter-parliamentary partnerships.
It is our collective responsibility to promote cooperation between Member Parliaments to achieve common legislations reflecting existing political, cultural and economic diversities.

Multilateral cooperation among Asian parliaments is a must to ensure democratic, peaceful and integrated solutions. We have no shortage of resources, or quality human capital and determination. Inter-parliamentary connectivity, therefore, can help to use these valued assets to our advantage.

I strongly urge the Asian Parliamentary leadership present here to promote and encourage strong inter-parliamentary cooperation and partnerships for the wellbeing and prosperity of our nations.

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Realizing the Asian Century dream depends upon first resolving regional conflicts and hurdles to peace and progress like Kashmir; Palestine and Rohingya issues.

Indian Occupied Jammu and Kashmir is a nuclear flash point and a source of instability and unrest in the region. One of the oldest unresolved issues on the UN agenda, Kashmir is a global issue that requires attention and prompt solution as per UNSC resolutions and universal principles of fundamental human rights, freedom, justice and fair play.

In this regard; it is necessary to make reference to certain facts which have further aggravated these human rights violations. On 5th August, 2019, India imposed curfew and in a unilateral attempt, declared the Indian Occupied Jammu and Kashmir as part of India. Thus For last four months, people of the Held Valley have been facing a brutal curfew and communications lockdown, grave human rights violations, murder, torture, arrests and restrictions on personal freedoms. While India profess religious tolerance, there is a complete ban on holding religious ceremonies in the Indian Occupied Jammu and Kashmir, so much and so, that Kashmiris are not allowed to bury their dead and hold funeral prayers for the departed ones. The Indian Occupied Jammu and Kashmir has been isolated from the world to suppress the voice of Kashmiri people and keep the world in dark regarding the atrocities being committed in the area. 10 lac army personnel have been deputed to control 80 lac Kashmiri people making it a ratio of one soldier for 10 innocent Kashmiris. India has not only violated the UNSC resolutions but also blatantly desecrated all norms of humanity and human rights. UNSC, OIC and other International Organizations have strongly condemned the brutality being carried out by India specially the unilateral imposition of curfew. Amnesty International, Human Rights Watch and other international Human Rights Organizations have time and again protested against the human rights violations in the Indian Occupied Jammu and Kashmir. United National Human Rights Council in its reports of 2018 and 2019 has strongly condemned the human rights violations by India. These reports are available on the United Nation’s website and I urge you to please go through these reports. Indian terms this issue as a bilateral issue whereas the entire world as well as the UN resolutions have identified this issue as an international issue and offered mediation and plebiscite as a solution. The magnitude of this issue is no less than the Palestine and Rohingya issues and please remember that brutality on one human is a brutality against the whole humanity. Cruelty and injustice anywhere is cruelty and injustice everywhere. India is committing blatant violation of International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, United Nations Convention against Torture, United Nations Convention against racial discrimination, Genocide Conventions, Conventions against enforced disappearances and other related conventions. India claims that it has taken the 5th August, 2019, step for development and progress of the Indian Occupied Jammu and Kashmir, Ladies and Gentlemen, it is an established fact that there can be no development and progress without free consent. This used to happen in the era of colonization, Prime Minister Modi has adopted the model of colonization which is a failed attempt to supress the right of self-determination and a sheer violation of the fundamental rights.

Why I am narrating these facts informant of you because I want to clear certain misconception being propagated by India. My colleague from India claimed about religious tolerance, religious diversity, religious and cultural pluralism, however, on ground realities are completely different and horrible. Centuries old Babri Mosque was destroyed, recently a Citizenship Act has been passed by the Indian Parliament, which has deprived millions of Muslims from claiming Indian citizenship, and this is the true face of India which we want to show to the world. I have not fabricated these laws; these are available on the websites and many countries have already made observations on these laws and we have also seen condemnations coming from all quarters.

Distinguish Delegates,

It is very easy to state that don’t speak about my crimes because you are criminals. This may be right in India but it’s not applicable in the world. Moreover, Pakistan itself is the victim of terrorism. Seventy thousand Pakistanis have been killed in the war against terrorism. Secondly, what about the attack on Sikh Gurdwaras in 1980s when you disintegrated Sikh temples and killed thousands of Sikhs when former Indian Prime Minister Indira Gandhi was assassinate? Was it religious freedom? What about Babri Mosque? What about the killer of Gujrat your Prime Minister Narendra Modi who was declared the butcher of Gujrat by the whole world? Your Supreme Court has given judgment on his atrocities as well.
So do not blame us. Look into your own house. You call us a rogue state? No. Your Prime Minister is a rouge person who is a Dracula of these times. He is the killer of Gujrat. He has not only killed but personally responsible for killings. He is the epitome of Draconian actions which speaks of his character. The whole country should throw him out and put him in the Arabian Sea rather than you defending him here. I am very sorry that you are speaking of cultural atmosphere and cultural strength of India but here you are defending a terrorist.

Ladies and Gentlemen,

I strongly urge the APA Members to play their due role in resolving Kashmir issue as per UNSC resolutions for the sake of regional peace, stability and progress.

We are not here to defend the policies of our respective Governments; we are Parliamentarians, hence representatives people and their aspirations. Public interest is different from that of interest of the Government. Any violations of interest of public anywhere should be condemned everywhere. I am raising voice for all such people, either be it Palestinian, Rohingyan or any person anywhere in the world. Asian Parliamentary Assembly stands for peace and tolerance and we must respect that mandate. Let’s take solid steps toward achieving its objectives.

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Pakistan believes that there is a dire need to reform and strengthen APA by revisiting its internal administrative and financial structures, rules and mechanisms.
Reforms are the need of the hour to make APA more representative and dynamic. It will also enable it to broaden its role and work more effectively with Member Parliaments in realizing common ideals of democracy, durable peace, rule of law, inclusive development, respect for human rights, and effective conflict resolution.

I appreciate and welcome Kuwait for assuming the important portfolio as Chair of the Working Group on Statutory Documents during the first Executive Council Meeting held in Turkey in October. We support, in principle, the amendments proposed by Russia, and I am confident that through our joint efforts and input, the Working Group will be able to thoroughly review the document and create consensus in this regard.

Hopefully, this plenary session will guide us to seek viable solutions to all matters placed on its agenda, through consensus and understanding.

Thank You!
The Speech of Father Constantine Qarmash
Deputy Speaker of the Palestine National Council (PNC)
Head of the Palestinian Delegation to 12th Asian Parliamentary Assembly (APA)
Antalya - Turkey
13-18 Dec. 2019

Your Excellency, Mr. Prof. Mustafa ŞENTOP
The Speaker of the Grand National Assembly – Turkey, President of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly,
Your Excellency, Mr. Muhammad Majeedi
Secretary-General of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly,
Your Excellencies, Honorable Speakers of Parliaments,
Your Excellencies, distinguished heads of delegations,
Your Excellencies, Members,

First of all, on behalf of the Speaker of the Palestine National Council (PNC), Mr. Saleem Al-Za’anoun, and members of the Palestinian delegation, I extend my sincere thanks to His Excellency Mr. Prof. Mustafa ŞENTOP, Speaker of the Turkish Grand National Assembly / President of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly for his kind invitation, and for the generous hospitality, and thanks also to Mr. Muhammed Majeedi, Secretary-General of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly.

Our session is taking place in this beautiful city, under the title "The Role of Multiilateral Cooperation between Asian Parliaments", which is a very important topic, and cooperation has interests for all. Asian parliaments have a great responsibility to set the necessary mechanisms to enhance cooperation between them, and to initiate a general framework for it, in order to play an effective role in removing obstacles. Asia deserves to make us spend exceptional efforts, it is the largest continent in size (44 million km2), and the most populated (about 4.5 billion people), and it is also the home of the world's first great ancient civilizations and the cradle of religions.
Ladies & Gentlemen,

The occupied State of Palestine is an integral part of our extended large continent, but unfortunately it remains under a criminal racist Israeli occupation, which continues the daily terror against children, women and the elderly. This reminds us of what Herodos, the juaidaization ruler in Jerusalem, who responded to the birth of Christ by killing the children of Bethlehem, who are two years of age and under, to get rid of this child, the Christ, he killed 14 thousand children, but the message of this child spread throughout the world, and its roots are cultivated in all the holy Palestinian lands. We, the Palestinians, are the guardians of it.

In spite of this, we certainly believe that the star of birth will rise again, and the path of the independent Palestinian state with its capital, the city of Jerusalem, will shine for us again, despite the oppression of the new Herodos and his servants, where they continue to kill, arrest and destroy homes, besiege Gaza Strip, steal lands and settle in, and they intend to attack Islamic and Christianity sanctities, and violate the holy places of worship, especially the blessed Al-Aqsa Mosque.

For all of this, we desperately need you, the peoples and countries of Asia to stop the series of oppression and injustice to which our people are subjected, and get rid of this criminal Israeli occupation that Trump Administration is supporting and protecting.

Ladies & Gentlemen,

We are subjected to an open war and unprecedented attack by the Trump Administration and his Zionist team, who assaulted our rights, international law and international resolutions. Trump Administration moved its embassy to occupied Jerusalem, after recognizing it as the capital of the Israeli occupation, then supported it with a set of other decisions and steps, including closing the Palestine Representative Office in Washington, and stopped USA support for "UNRWA", with the intention of canceling the refugees' right to return, but USA failed, then USA stopped its financial support to Palestine, to force Palestinians to accept the so-called "Deal of the Century", and also failed to achieve its goal.

Trump Administration was not satisfied with that, it tried to impose an economic solution in exchange for rights, but again failed greatly, and announced the deletion of any reference to the Palestinian territories from the correspondence of the US State Department, then recognized the sovereignty of the Israeli occupation over the Syrian Arab Golan. But the whole world rejected that.
In a confrontation to all these pressures, blackmail, and injustice by the strongest country in the world, Palestine, its people and its leadership headed by President Mahmoud Abbas has withstood, and has faced all these decisions with consistency, pride, and dignity. We will continue to defend our rights and our dignity.

Ladies & Gentlemen,

At a time when the whole world is celebrating - next week - the birthday of the Messenger of Love and Peace - Jesus Christ - in the Palestinian city of Bethlehem, where I am proud that I was born in Beit Jala, the adjacent town to Bethlehem, the prime minister of settlers government, Netanyahu, practices his terror against our people, our land and our holy sites, and continues his colonial policy, with entire protection and support of Trump Administration, while US Secretary of State Mike Pompeo announced on 18th of Nov. 2019 that “Israeli settlements in the Occupied Palestinian Territories is not inconsistent with the international law”.

On behalf of the Palestinian people, we call on you to reject this declaration, which flagrantly violates international law and international resolutions, violates the Fourth Geneva Convention of 1949, violates the advisory opinion of the International Court of Justice of 2004 on the wall and settlement, and violates the Rome Statute of 1998, which considered settlement and its consequences a war crime.

We also invite you to condemn the USA recognition and any other party or country that may recognize the results of the occupation and settlement, because that constitutes a threat to international peace and security, and an unacceptable attempt to change the legal rules upon which the international system was established.

We also welcome the decision of the European Court of Justice on Israeli settlements and the prohibition of their products. We call on the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, Mrs. Michel Bachelet, to expedite the publication of the "black list" of Israeli and foreign companies that deal or work in Israeli settlements in the occupied Palestinian territories, as a necessary step to isolate settlements and protect human rights.

The world has responded to the American-Israeli violations of international law. 170 countries voted in the United Nations in favor of extending the mandate of the "UNRWA" Agency, and 14 members of the UN Security Council rejected the legitimization of settlements, and the US House of Representatives approved a resolution a few days ago to support the two-state solution as the sole solution of the conflict, and acknowledges the aspirations of our people to establish their own state, and rejects the policy of annexation and settlement. We deem the UN 170 countries votes and Security Council decision a positive response to the US Administration, which continued its violations of international law and the rights of the Palestinian people.

Dear beloved, the wise people of the world, heads and members of parliamentary delegations, we appeal to you to affirm supporting the right word to stop Israel hegemony. We appeal to you to provide more support to Palestinian people, to defend the freedom of peoples, and to join the effort to isolating and trapping all voices that try to come above the principles of freedom, justice, values, and human rights worldwide, and to avoid further chaos, bloodshed and suffering.

Dear beloved, respond to the truth, and do not let the forces of darkness wreak havoc in Palestine, the land of peace, and do not allow them to repeat the criminal act again, as happened in 1450 B.C., Joshua bin Nun annihilated the city of Jericho and other Palestinian cities, including the people, trees and stone (the book of Joshua bin Noun Chapter 7.6).

In conclusion, we in Palestine - despite the injustice, historical ternary and painful concession on our part in favor of peace - affirm our adherence to a just peace that guarantees us the right to self-determination and right of return to our land, and the establishment of an independent Palestinian state with its capital, the city of Jerusalem, in accordance with relevant international legitimacy resolutions.

Until we achieve this, we will remain steadfast in our land, defend it, and will not leave it.

Thank you for your kind attention

Draft Agenda

1- Adoption of the Agenda
2- Election of the Bureau
3- Opening Remarks by Chairperson
4- Report of the Secretariat
5- Report of the Chairman of Working Group on Asian Parliament
6- Consideration of Draft Resolution recommended by 2nd Executive Council
7- Any other matters
Mr. Chair,

The Iran’s Islamic Parliament has been one of the main sponsors of establishment of the Asian Parliament (AP).

This support has been done by focusing on previous experiences in parliamentary integration in Asia as well as gradual promotion and evolution of the APA to an inclusive regional parliamentary institution.

In this regards, Iran’s Parliament has spent considerable human and financial resources for realizing this supreme goal.

However, this goal would not turn into reality as long as lack of attention to the political, economic, ethnic, religious, cultural and social grounds of Asia and lessons learnt from other regions.

Iran believes that the idea of the AP belongs to all Asian states and Asian parliaments; therefore, their viewpoints and observations about the AP need to be taken into account.

At the same time, the AP is a subdivision to the major objective of Asian integration on which governments need to decide.

Therefore, pursuing this objective must be in line with regional integration agreements among the Asian states. Given various differences and contrasts among the Asian nations, this objective has been facing with numerous challenges so far.

All in all, discussing the establishment of an inclusive AP without attention to the theoretical, political, economic and security contexts as well as its operational requirements including diverse national rules and procedures, will remain in an abstract condition with no hope to its realization.

Mr. Chair,

We believe that exchange of views about the AP establishment needs to be done firs and foremost within national and sub-regional level and these discussions to be forwarded to the APA Secretariat for further deliberation. Then, member parliaments to give their feedbacks on different ideas in order to find out whether the current time is apt for raising such idea or not.

Quite obvious that as this extensive scheme will not materialize without relying on a support by an active and efficient regional parliamentary institution, the APA Secretariat, in the next step, will need to consult with intra- and extra-regional academic forums and other regional parliamentary institutions beyond Asia such as the European Union with the purpose of exploring this idea, identifying the obstacles, challenges, opportunities and requirements for its realization.

At the end, it is on us to propose a theoretical-practical blueprint aimed at turning the APA to the AP.

I need to stress on this point that any activity about the AP must be under supervision and leadership of the APA’s Standing Committee on Political Affairs and this Working Group, as an ad hoc group, needs to present its action reports to the Political Committee for consideration and adoption.

The Iran’s Parliament is endorsing past efforts and actions within this Working Group and firmly believes that its future activities need to be resumed within the same conditions and observations.

We believe that as there are considerable sensitivities and impacting factors about political, economic, security, cultural, ethnic and religious issues in Asia, the idea of establishing the AP requires extensive research and then requires complex, comprehensive, prospective and realistic negotiations about this idea. Also, there are many questions and concerns that need to be logically and realistically addressed within this framework.

Mr. Chair,

To conclude, allow me just to forward the Iranian delegation’s perspectives about how to address the concept of the Asian Parliament:

1. The historical development of Asia is among key issues of post-cold war international relations. End of the Cold War opened a new horizon in the contemporary history of Asia and paved the way for gradual return of Asia to the global economic, political and cultural orbit. This trend got further accelerated and deepened at the turn of the century. As enjoying unique historical, geopolitical, civilizational, cultural, economic and social factors and features, Asia will become gradually and steadily to the focal point of the international relations. In this direction, the Asian integration including harmonization of the parliamentary activities in Asia, as an effective complementarity for inter-governmental activities is of utmost importance.

2. The ethnic, racial and religious fragmentations, different and conflicting national interests and serious political, economic and security rivalries and sensitivities are among noticeable features of the contemporary Asian community. Therefore, the Asian parliamentary integration is facing numerous challenges and obstacles thanks to geographical, historical, political, cultural and inter-relational requirements. The reality is that power in Asia is an intersection of various and conflicting political prospects. That is why structure for political cooperation and convergence is yet fragile. The diversity of national and subnational institutions as well as various types of cooperation rooted from different political and religious ideologies along with the extension of diverse Asian actors and powers are among main reasons for the impossibility of the political integration and accordingly, the realization of the Asian Parliament. On the other hand, the type of linkages between some Asian states with trans-regional powers is another challenge to the Asian integration. So, given different ideological, cultural and religious perspectives, the continental and trans-continental powers follow different narratives and approaches about regionalism and parliamentarism in Asia. Despite some over-lapping issues, these narratives and approaches have competing goals and prospects that reaching to a shared viewpoint is difficult.

3. Given the novelty of the Asian Parliament as well as the considerably complex political, security, economic, cultural, religious and ethnic conditions of the Asian states with different levels of democracy, any precipitance in exploring such key issues will lead to the deviation of goals and realistic and practical solutions. The Iran’s Parliament believes that achieving this grand objective will be done by a consensus among APA’s members.

Thank you.
