APA/Social/Rep/2010/01

29 November, 2010

Report of the APA Standing Committee on Social and Cultural Affairs
Damascus, 29 November 2010

The APA Standing Committee on Social and Cultural Affairs held its meeting on 29 November 2010 and adopted its agenda.

1. Honorable, Mr. Khalil Ebrahim Al Marzooq of Bahrain chaired the meeting. Honorable, Mr. Khandakar Abdul Baten of Bangladesh was elected as the vice-Chairperson of the Standing Committee.
2. The documents before the Standing Committee were:

EC1/Res/2010/01: Sub-Committee on Combating Corruption
EC1/Res/2010/02: Sub-Committee on Achieving Health Equity in Asia
EC1/Res/2010/03: Sub-Committee on Challenges and Opportunities of Globalization in Asia
EC1/Res/2010/09: Ad-hoc Committee on Information and Communication Technology
EC1/Res/2010/13: Sub-Committee on Protecting and Respecting Cultural Diversity in Asia
EC2/Res/2010/01: Coordinating Meeting of APA Women Parliamentarians
EC1/Des/2010/01: APA Day
3. The Chairman opened the meeting. The Assistant Secretary-General Mr Gholamali Khoshroo briefly described the six draft resolutions and one draft decision before the Standing Committee.

4. The Standing Committee took note with appreciation of the Reports submitted by the APA Secretary-General to each Sub-Committee that constituted the basis of deliberations in the sub-committees leading to the development of the draft resolutions above.
5. The delegations of the Russian Federation, Saudi Arabia, Indonesia, the Islamic Republic of Iran, Bahrain, Bangladesh, Syrian Arab Republic, Singapore and Palestine took the floor and commented on the issues before the Committee.
6. The Standing Committee agreed on the text of the Draft Resolutions to be forwarded to the Plenary for final adoption. The Draft Resolutions are now issued under Documents

APA/Social/Res/2010/01: Draft Resolution on Combating Corruption

APA/Social/Res/2010/02: Draft Resolution on Achieving Health Equity in Asia

APA/Social/Res/2010/03: Draft Resolution on Challenges and Opportunities of Globalization in Asia

APA/Social/Res/2010/04: Draft Resolution on Information and Communication Technology

APA/Social/Res/2010/05: Draft Resolution on Protecting and Respecting Cultural Diversity in Asia

APA/Social/Res/2010/06: Draft Resolution Coordinating Meeting of APA Women Parliamentarians

APA/Social/Des/2010/01: Draft Decision on APA Day

7. The delegations of the Russian Federation and Singapore expressed reservations on paragraph 4 of the Draft Resolution on Protecting and Respecting Cultural Diversity in Asia.
8. The Honorable delegate of the Russian Federation, referring to the illegal drug trafficking in Afghanistan, proposed to establish an APA Ad-hoc Committee on Drug Trafficking. He informed the meeting that Russian Federation would produce the relevant documents. The Chairman informed the Committee that this Ad-hoc Committee may meet at the sideline of one of the Sub-Committees under the umbrella of the Standing Committee on Social and Cultural Affairs in 2011. The Honorable delegate of Syria expressed readiness to host the Ad-hoc Committee in the event that the Islamic Republic of Iran will not be in a position to hold that meeting. The Chairman concluded that an Ad-hoc Committee may be established and its first meeting would be at the sideline of one of the Sub-Committees under the umbrella of the Standing Committee on Social and Cultural Affairs in 2011 in Iran or Syria. The Committee agreed on this proposal to be forwarded to the Plenary for final adoption.
9. The Honorable delegate of Indonesia, referring to the problems of migrant workers in Asia, proposed to establish an APA Ad-hoc Committee to Protect the Rights of Migrant Workers in Asia. He informed the meeting that Indonesia would be prepared to host the first meeting of the Ad-hoc Committee in 2011. A number of delegations supported this proposal. The Chairman concluded that an Ad-hoc Committee may be established and its first meeting would be at the sideline of one of the Sub-Committees under the umbrella of the Standing Committee on Social and Cultural Affairs in 2011 in Indonesia and that Indonesia would produce the relevant documents for the Ad-hoc Committee meeting. The Committee agreed on this proposal to be forwarded to the Plenary for final adoption.

10. The Standing Committee took note of the proposals made by the Honorable delegate of Bangladesh on the enhancement of cooperation among Member Parliaments on social and cultural affairs.

17. The Plenary adopted 6 resolutions and one decision recommended by the Standing Committee on Social and Cultural Affairs.

18. Standing Committee on Political Affairs:

The Rapporteur of the Standing Committee on Political Affairs, Honorable, Mr. Suleiman Haddad (Syria), submitted the following report on the decisions of the Committee to the Plenary:

APA/Political/Rep/2010/01

30 November 2010

Report of the Standing Committee on Political affairs
APA 5th Plenary Session
Damascus, 30 November 2010

Rapporteur: Honorable, Mr. Suliman Haddad (Syria)

1. The Standing Committee on Political affairs met in the morning of 30 November 2010. Honorable, Dr. Sunggong Kim, MP (Republic of Korea) chaired the meeting. H. E. Dr. Masoud Islami, APA Assistant Secretary-General served the meeting.
2. The meeting adopted its agenda (Annex I). It elected its Bureau: Honorable, Mr. Amir Taherkhani (Islamic Republic of Iran) was elected the Vice-Chairperson and Honorable Mr. Suliman Haddad (Syria) was elected as the Rapporteur.
3. The Committee then moved to consider the six draft resolutions on its agenda as follows:
  - EC1/Res/2010/04 Draft Resolution on Comprehensive Counter-Terrorism and Counter-Occupation Strategies
  - EC1/Res/2010/05 Draft Resolution on Supporting the Rights of Palestinian People
  - EC1/Res/2010/06 Draft Resolution on Reinforcing the Declaration on Principles of Friendship and Cooperation in Asia
  - EC2/Res/2010/02 Draft Resolution on Denouncing the Use or Threat of Use of Nuclear Weapons
  - EC1/Res/2010/08 Draft Resolution on Measures for Enhancing Cooperation between Parliaments & Governments
  - EC1/Res/2010/09 Draft Resolution on Measures for Enhancing Cooperation between Parliaments & Governments

4. The draft resolution on the Necessity of Effective Security Assurance and Denouncing the Use or Threat of Use of Nuclear Weapons in International Relations drew further debate and discussion, despite the thorough discussion of the same in the informal meeting of the 28 November. The Korean proposal to include some reference to the desirability of establishing a nuclear weapon free zone in the Korean Peninsula was discussed. Several delegations stressed that the Executive Council decided not to be specific on a single state and thus appealed to the Korean Delegate not to insist on his proposal. The Chair ruled that the proposal of the Republic of Korea be reflected in the report of the Standing Committee.

The delegation of Syria proposed adding a paragraph from the UN Middle East Resolution contained in operative paragraph 2 of A/Res/64/26, dated 14 January 2010, which reads:

“Calls upon all countries of the region that have not yet done so, pending the establishment of the zone, to agree to place all their nuclear activities under International Atomic Energy Agency safeguards”

The Chair ruled that the meeting will no longer entertain major amendment and asked the Syrian delegate not to block the consensus. The draft resolution was agreed upon and forwarded to the Plenary for adoption.

5. Draft resolution on supporting the Rights of Palestinian People was also discussed further. The delegation of the Russian Federation pointed out that its delegation has several amendments to it. The delegation of Singapore stressed that the draft goes beyond the provisions of the UN resolutions and that its delegation dissociate itself from this draft resolution. The delegations of Syria, Islamic Republic of Iran, Lebanon, Saudi Arabia, Bahrain, and Palestine took the floor, made extensive statements on developments in the Middle East and supported the draft resolution on the Rights of the Palestinian People. They suggested that the meeting move to adopt the draft resolution and at the same time record the views of Singapore and Russia who have reservations thereon.

The delegations of Russian and Singapore said they would have voted in favor of this draft resolution if it would have facilitated finding a resolution to the Middle East conflict, but in their views, the draft is counterproductive. Russia and Singapore abstain from supporting this resolution not because they do not support the Palestinian rights, but because Russia and Singapore believe reality dictates a more complex approach to the Middle East conflict. Russia also stressed that the draft contradicts parts of their commitment under the Quartet. Russia and Singapore support the general crux of the draft resolution, but would have abstained if the draft resolution were to be voted upon.

The Chair then moved to adopt the resolution with the understanding that the position of Singapore and Russia are reflected in the report of the Standing Committee. China and Cambodia made a statement in support of Palestinian rights and the United Nations and international approach to resolve the conflict. Cambodia associated his delegation with those of Russia and Singapore on the draft resolution.

The meeting then agreed to propose the draft resolution to the Plenary.

6. The Standing Committee moved to consideration of draft resolution on the Role of Asian parliaments in Promoting Comprehensive Counter-Terrorism and Counter Occupation Strategies. The Secretariat presented the background to this draft and presented, in brief, the amendments proposed and circulated by the Russian delegation. The Secretariat pointed out the Syria and Iran has presented counter amendments to the Russian proposals. The meeting then entertained the amendments. Palestine supported the draft as it stands. Singapore questioned some concepts and paragraphs in the draft resolution. Lebanon supported the resolution and made some clarification on the questions raised by Singapore on the question of self-determination of peoples under foreign occupation. He moved to adopt the draft resolution. Palestine thanked those who supported Palestinian right for self-determination and called for adoption of the resolution as amended. Saudi Arabia supported Lebanese statement. Indonesia supported the draft and called on delegations not to go back discussing what has been agreed before. He supported the Lebanese proposal to adopt the draft. Russian delegation said that he does not support the draft resolution and would have abstained if the resolution were to be voted on.

Islamic Republic of Iran made a statement and encouraged condemnation of this evil phenomenon. He said the delegates may have noted in the news that two Iranian nuclear physicists were assassinated the day before yesterday in Tehran: Professors Abbasi and Shahriari were assassinated close to their universities. If we do not act today, terrorism will find other victims tomorrow. He supported the draft resolution as it now stands. I also suggest that we take note of the terrorism that took place the day before yesterday in Tehran.

The chair asked the Secretariat to present a compromise text. The Assistant Secretary-General briefed the meeting on the status of his consultation with different delegations. He orally presented an amended text that could meet with the approval of the meeting. The Chair moved to adopt the draft as amended by the Secretariat. Lebanon supported the draft as amended by the Secretariat. China proposed deletion of two paragraphs: Russia sought some clarifications about the amended text. Bahrain called for adoption of the resolution as amended.

The meeting then agreed to propose the draft resolution to the Plenary with certain changes which accommodated two of the amendments proposed by Russian delegation concerning the deletion of reference to state terrorism and recognizing the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons as acts of terrorism. The meeting did not however accept the two other Russian amendments concerning the deletion of reference to foreign occupation and recognition of the rights of all people to self-determination as having nothing to do with terrorism. The Secretariat clarified the questions raised by Russia. The Chair moved to adopt the resolution. The meeting agreed to recommend to the Plenary to adopt the resolution.

The Plenary adopted six resolutions recommended by the Standing Committee on Political Affairs.

19. Standing Committee on Economic and Sustainable Development:

The Rapporteur of the Standing Committee on Economic and Sustainable Development, submitted the following report to the Plenary:

APA/Economic/Rep/2010/01

30 November 2010

Report of the APA Standing Committee on Economic and Sustainable Development

Damascus, 30 November 2010

The Standing Committee on Economic and Sustainable Development held its meeting on 30 November 2010 and adopted its agenda.

11. Honorable, Mr. V.A. Yazev, Vice-Chairman of State Duma, Russian Federation chaired the meeting.
12. The documents before the Standing Committee were:
  - a. EC.1/Res/2010/12: Draft Resolution on Environmental Issues, Global Warming, Climate Change and Planting Billions of Trees throughout Asia
  - b. EC.1/Res/2010/14: Draft Resolution on Alleviating Poverty in Asia,
  - c. EC.1/Res/2010/10: Draft Resolution on Ramifications of International Financial Crisis for the Economies of the Countries of APA Member Parliaments
  - d. EC.1/Res/2010/11: Draft Resolution on Integrated Energy Market in Asia
13. The Chairman opened the meeting. The Assistant Secretary-General Mr. Ali Khorram briefly described the four draft resolutions before the Standing Committee.
14. The Standing Committee took note with appreciation of the Reports submitted by the APA Secretary-General to each Sub-Committee that constituted the basis of deliberations in the Sub-Committees leading to the development of the draft resolutions above.
15. The delegations of the Russian Federation, Saudi Arabia, the Islamic Republic of Iran, Syrian Arab Republic and China took the floor and commented on the issues before the Committee.

16. The Standing Committee agreed on the text of the Draft Resolutions as amended to be forwarded to the Plenary for final adoption. The Draft Resolutions as amended are now issued under Documents:
- e. APA/Economic/Res/2010/01: Draft Resolution on Environmental Issues, Global Warming, Climate Change and Planting Billions of Trees throughout Asia
  - f. APA/Economic/Res/2010/02: Draft Resolution on Alleviating Poverty in Asia
  - g. APA/Economic/Res/2010/03: Draft Resolution on Ramifications of International Financial Crisis for the Economies of the Countries of APA Member Parliaments
  - h. APA/Economic/Res/2010/04: Draft Resolution on Integrated Energy Market in Asia,
17. On the Resolution related to Integrated Energy Market in Asia, The Honorable Delegate of Saudi Arabia stated that in the opinion of the Shura Council of Saudi Arabia the conference can be held after the consultation with the governments of Member Parliaments. He requested that his delegation's views in this regard are reflected in the minutes of the meeting.
18. The Delegate of the Russian Federation made a presentation on the International Conference in 2011 on Asian Integrated Energy Market as reflected in operative paragraph 9 of the Draft Resolution.

The Plenary adopted 4 resolutions recommended by the Standing Committee on Economic and Sustainable Development. The Delegation of Saudi Arabia stressed that implementation of Operative Paragraph 9 of Resolution on Integrated Energy Market in Asia should be contingent on prior consultations with governments.

20. The Rapporteur of the Plenary, Mr. Benjir Ahmed MP (Bangladesh) presented the Report of the 5th Plenary and the Plenary adopted it by acclamation.
21. The meeting adopted the Final Statement of Damascus as amended.
22. The Delegation of the Republic of Korea expressed hope that APA would develop greater balance in its approach to issues important to Asia. He stressed that APA currently puts too much emphasis to the Middle East and little or no attention to other parts of Asia, like the Far East.
23. The Delegation of Russian Federation offered to serve as the President of the APA after Syria.
24. The President made a closing statement.
25. The Heads of delegations of Kuwait and Indonesia took the floor and expressed gratitude to the Government, Parliament and people of Syrian Arab Republic for the leadership provided the APA. They also thanked the APA Secretary-General and his assistants for their excellent preparation of documents and servicing the meetings.
26. The President thanked all delegations, the APA Secretariat and staff of the People's Assembly of Syria again and officially closed the 5th Plenary at 6:30 P.M. on 30 November 2010.
27. The list of participants (in Arabic) is attached to the report as Annex IX. The Host Parliament was requested to prepare the same list in English and should be sent to all Member Parliaments in due time.

SPEECH BY H.E. Dr. MARZUKI ALIE, PRESIDENT OF THE APA AT THE OPENING OF THE 5th PLENARY SESSION OF THE APA Damascus, 29th November 2010

*Excellency Mr. Bashar Al-Assad, President of the Syrian Arab Republic, Excellency Dr. Mahmud Al-Abrash, Speaker of the People's Assembly of the Syrian Arab Republic,
Honorable Dr. Nejad Hosseinian, Secretary General of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly,
Excellencies Leaders of Parliaments,
Honorable Members of Parliaments,
Distinguished invitees,
Ladies and Gentlemen,*

*Bismillahirrohmanirrohim
Assalamualaikum Warohmatullah Wabarokatuh*

At the outset, let us express our most sincere thanks to Allah SWT, for the blessing and well-being so that we are able to gather here today. It is a great honor for me to be able to participate in this 5th Plenary Session of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly.

On behalf of the House of Representatives of the Republic of Indonesia, I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to the People's Assembly of the Syrian Arab Republic for its initiative to convene this important meeting and its warm welcome to us since our arrival in this beautiful city. Our sincere gratitude also goes to the Secretariat of the APA for its valuable contribution in the preparation of this Plenary Session. Also to all Members of Parliaments of the APA member-countries, I would like to convey my appreciation for your presence. I believe your presence here will contribute to fruitful solution of the problems faced by Asian nations nowadays.

At present, promoting democracy is an important mandate for almost all inter-government and inter-parliamentary organizations . We, Members of the APA, pursuant to the APA Charter, have confirmed our commitments to the moral and spiritual values of the collective heritage of Asian nations. I am convinced that these commitments are the foundation for a real democracy. In the era which has become increasingly democratic, Parliament plays its role as a vital institution to voice people's aspiration, endorse legislative products, and oversee the government. Moreover, Parliament works together

جناب آقای دکتر حداد عادل

نماینده محترم مجلس شورای اسلامی ایران

و ریاست اسبق مجمع مجالس آسیایی

در پنجمین اجلاس سالانه مجمع مجالس آسیایی

دمشق - سوریه

۸ آذر ۱۳۸۹

جناب رئیس،

رؤسا و نمایندگان محترم مجالس آسیایی،

خانمها و آقایان،

در آغاز مایلم خوشحالی خود را از برگزاری موفق پنجمین اجلاس مجمع مجالس آسیایی در کشور دوست و برادر سوریه ابراز نمایم. جای بسی خوشوقتی است که شهر تاریخی و زیبای دمشق به عنوان یکی از کانونهای مهم رشد و گسترش فرهنگ و تمدن اسلامی در طول سده های گذشته، امروز میزبان مجالس آسیایی است. در این جا باید از زحمات فراوان مجلس اندونزی، به ویژه برادر بسیار عزیزم جناب آقای مزروعی علی ر یاست محترم مجلس و همکاران ایشان، در راهبری فعالیت های مجمع مجالس آسیایی طی دو سال گذشته صمیمانه تشکر کنم. مجلس اندونزی در دوران ریاست خود به خوبی نشان داد که تا چه حد به پیشبرد اهداف مجمع مجالس آسیایی علاقمند، و در راه تقویت همگرایی در اسیا جدی است. همچنین اطمینان دارم که پنجمین اجلاس مجمع مجالس آسیایی با اتخاذ تصمیمات مهم و سازنده راه همگرایی و همکاری در آسیا را هموارتر خواهد کرد و دستاوردهای ارزشمندی در حوزه های اقتصادی، سیاسی و فرهنگی به ارمغان خواهد آورد.

عالیجنابان،

اسیا از لحاظ ساختاری و فرهنگی از موقعیت ممتاز و ویژه ای در جهان برخوردار است. از نظر راهبردی اسیا وسیع ترین قاره و دارای حساس ترین نقاط ژئواستراتژیک در کره زمین است. اکنون بیش از دو سوم جمعیت جهان در اسیا زندگی میکنند که این خود نیروی کار بسیار ارزشمندی را برای توسعه سریع اقتصادی فراهم می آورد. اسیا از لحاظ منابع سرشار طبیعی و ذخایر عظیم انرژی در بالاترین جایگاه جهانی قرار دارد.

از نظر فرهنگی و معنوی اسیا مهد ادیان بزرگ جهانی و میراث دار تمدنهای عظیم بشری است. فرهنگ های متنوع، ارزشهای والا و سنت های اصیل در تار و پود زندگی مردم در جوامع مختلف آسیایی نمایان است. پیامبران بزرگ الهی در خاک اسیا پرچم افراشتند و انسان را به رستگاری و پرستش خدای یگانه فراخواندند تا جوامع از زنجیرهای اسارت و سرسپردگی رها شوند و دروغ و تبهکاری ریشه کن شود و محبت و دوستی در جهان منتشر گردد. اسیا کانون اشراق و منبع فیاض نور در سراسر تاریخ بشر بوده است. همچنانکه خورشید هر روز از مشرق طلوع میکند، انوار عرفان و معنویت در طول تاریخ از شرق بر عالم تابیده است. در تجربه معنوی اسیا می توان به روشنی دریافت که چگونه نور آگاهی و گرمای حقیقت به زندگی نشاط و به جهان جان بخشیده است.

با اینهمه در این جا، در برابر نمایندگان محترم مجالس آسیایی باید خاطرنشان سازم که هنوز اسیا نتوانسته است نقش شایسته و واقعی خود را در تحولات جهانی ایفا کند. اکنون پرسش اساسی این است که چرا اسیا با وجود

برخورداری از این منابع سرشار مادی و ذخایر عظیم معنوی قادر نبوده است اقتدار شایسته و مشارکت فعال خود را در عرصه جهانی به منصه ظهور رساند. به نظر اینجانب کلید رمز گشایی این معضل تاریخی را باید در یک مفهوم بنیادی جستجو کرد و آن "همگرایی" است.

در جهانی که هر روز به نحو فزاینده ای اقتصاد، تجارت، محیط زیست، ارتباطات و فناوری در یکدیگر تنیده می شوند و ثبات، توسعه و امنیت هر کشور به تحولات جهانی ارتباط می یابد، کشورهای آسیایی نیز باید با تعریف سازوکارهای علمی و عملی و با اتخاذ سیاست های کلان قاره ای روابط میان خود را انسجام بخشند و با خلق فرصت های نوین به چالش های امروز جهان پاسخ گویند. همگرایی ارزش بسیار بالایی است که بدون شک هیچ کشوری با آن مخالف نیست. ارزشی که قادر است ژرف ترین وفاق اجتماعی را در سطح این قاره کهن و پهناور ایجاد کند. همگرایی در ارتباط با حوزه های مختلف حیات جوامع آسیایی برخوردار از بالاترین میزان سازگاری و موجد بیشترین حد هم افزایی است.

حرکت بر حول محور همگرایی سبب می شود بی اعتمادی و سو ظن میان کشورها جای خود را به دوستی و همکاری دهد. با بهره وری از منابع سرشار طبیعی و ذخایر عظیم انرژی و با جابجایی نیروی کار در سطح این قاره پهناور می توان حرکتی یکپارچه و نوین با هزینه کمتر و کار آمدی بیشتر سامان داد. تبادل تجربیات و بهره مندی از نمونه های موفق در این زمینه راهکار مناسبی برای تقویت همکاری های پارلمانی می باشد. به اعتقاد من، این مجمع میتواند از طریق تعمیق روابط با نهادهای دولتی و مردمی در سطح آسیا، گستره اجرایی تصمیمات خود را توسعه بخشد و همچنین با نهادهای مشابه خود در دیگر نقاط جهان وارد تعامل بیشتر شود تا نقش موثر خود را به نحو شایسته ای ایفا نماید.

مجمع مجالس آسیایی به عنوان مردمی ترین نهادی که به تدوین قانون و تعیین سیاست های کلان اشتغال دارد می تواند نقش پیشروی در همگرایی آسیا و توسعه روابط میان ملتها و دولتها به عهده بگیرد. علاوه بر موضوعات متنوع سیاسی، اقتصادی و فرهنگی که در نشستهای سالانه مورد بحث و گفتگو قرار میگیرد، ابتکارهای ارزندهای مانند «اعلامیه دوستی و همکاری در آسیا» «بازار یکپارچه انرژی در آسیا» «ایجاد پارلمان مجازی» «برگزاری کنفرانس» گفتگوی ادیان و تمدنها» گام های بزرگی در مسیر تحقق همگرایی در آسیا محسوب می شود.

نمایندگان محترم،

به هر میزان که مجمع مجالس آسیایی بتواند بسوی همگرایی پیشروی کند به همان میزان از حضور و نفوذ قدرتهای فرامنطقه ای در این قاره کهن کاسته میشود.

گرچه سیر تحولات در آسیا در یک سده گذشته در جهت کسب و تعمیق استقلال ملی و گسترش مشارکت مردم در فرایندهای سیاسی و اجتماعی بوده است، اما هنوز آسیا از حضور نظامی و مداخله سیاسی قدرتهای فرا منطقه ای رنج

می برد. حضور نیروهای خارجی در عراق و افغانستان باعث ناامنی و بیثباتی میشود، تروریسم در افغانستان، عراق و پاکستان هر روز قربانیان تازه میگیرد و زنان و کودکان بسیاری را به کام مرگ میکشد.

فلسطین در طول ده های گذشته قربانی اشغال و سرکوب و کشتار بی رحمانه مردم بی پناه خویش بوده است. محاصره همه جانبه غزه، کشتار کودکان مظلوم و مادران بیگناه، بمباران مناطق مسکونی، مدرسهها و بیمارستانها، نمونه بارز نسلکشی و جنایت علیه بشریت است. حمله وحشیانه به کاروان کمکهای انسانی که از سوی ازادیخواهان سراسر جهان برای رخنه در دیوار بزرگترین زندان تاریخ تدارک شده بود، نشانه دیگری از پایمال کردن قوانین بین المللی و بی اعتنائی به افکار عمومی جهانی توسط رژیم اشغالگر فلسطین است. اجلاس تروییکای مجمع مجالس آسیایی برای شکستن محاصره غزه و کمک به انسانهای اسیر و دربند اقدامی شایسته بوده است که اطمینان دارم با جدیت دنبال خواهد شد. مجمع مجالس آسیایی باید با اتخاذ موضعی قاطع و واحد اشغالگری اسرائیل را به ویژه اشغال بلندی های جولان را محکوم کند..

جناب آقای رییس

در پایان لازم می دانم از دبیر کل محترم مجمع، جناب آقای دکتر نژادحسینیان و همکاران محترمشان، سپاسگزاری می کنم. ریاست پنجمین دوره مجمع مجالس آسیایی توسط برادر گرامی جناب آقای دکتر الابرش رطست محترم مجلس سوریه را تبریک گفته و موفقیت ایشان را در هدایت مدبرانه امور خواستارم. امیدوارم که در نشست امسال، پیشرفت خوبی را در مباحثات، برنامه ریزی ها و پی گیری اقدامات شاهد باشیم.

متشکرم.

Statement

By

H.E. M. H. Nejad-Hosseinian

The Secretary-General of the APA

At the Inaugural Ceremony of

The Fifth APA Plenary Session

Damascus, Syria

29 November 2010

Mr. President,
Excellencies, Speakers of Parliament, Member of Parliaments
Excellencies,
Distinguished Delegates,
Ladies and Gentlemen,

It is my honor to address this noble and distinguished gathering today. I would like to register my appreciation to Honorable, Mr. Mahmoud Al-Abrach, the Speaker of People's Assembly of the Syrian Arab Republic for leading this session and congratulate him as the incoming APA President.

I wish also to express my sincere thanks to Honorable, Dr. Marzuki Alie, the outgoing APA President for his support without which the accomplishments of the APA over the past two years would have not been realized.

APA has given a new meaning to parliamentary diplomacy. The Fifth APA Plenary is yet another opportunity for renewing our resolve to meet challenges Asia faces today.

Flying together towards further integration in Asia has been the main theme of the APA resolutions and activities ever since the inception of the Assembly in 2006. Indeed, integration in Asia has been seen by the APA as a prelude to further peace, prosperity, democracy and justice in Asia. Each Asian Member Parliament has a role to play in the promotion of this ideal goal and a fair share of responsibility in facilitating and materializing its requirements.

Mr. Chairman,

Distinguished Delegates,

Parliaments possess fundamental powers to set the ground for development plans and priority agenda of their own countries. Cooperation within the framework of the APA has provided Member Parliaments with a solid standing point for combining their strengths and harmonizing their efforts to perform the same functions at a regional level. The essence of Asian Parliamentary diplomacy as inspired and promoted by the APA is to utilize the powers and functions of Parliaments in a harmonized and effective manner towards further integration in Asia.

The principal function and effective power of Parliaments rest in their position as legislative power. By exercising their main function as law-making institutions, Asian Parliaments can immensely contribute to the process of Asian integration through their common legislations.

Indeed, the APA has already made remarkable contributions to the initiation of Asian integration by addressing fundamental issue areas relevant to the development and prosperity in Asia and by adopting resolutions which identify priority agenda items for further convergence among nations of this region.

What is needed at this stage is to exchange views and explore how APA can devise effective mechanisms to better implement its decisions and resolutions. The wider interest of Asia is served when APA Member Parliaments accord greater focus on how to follow up on implementation of APA decisions.

APA has great potentials. It is a remarkable political asset for Asia that needs to be reckoned with on both legislative and political policy making. APA has pronounced itself on a number of major issues of international peace and security. Certainly, Asia has more than its fair share of situations of conflict, not only in the Middle East but also in other parts of greater Asia. APA Troika Plus offers a voice to Asian People. Asian parliamentary leaders forming APA Troika Plus can bear the weight of Asia as a whole on any situation of conflict with a view to managing regional crisis.

A track record of Troika Plus over the past two years on the grave situation in Gaza following Israeli aggression is indicative of the great political potentials which lie in Asian parliamentary diplomacy.

Mr. President,

APA has grown as an organization with an impressive pace. It has achieved many structural and substantive successes. APA owes its achievements to the active and constructive participation of all its Member Parliaments and the leadership exercised by APA President, Honorable Dr. Marzuki Alie and his capable colleagues. I am confident that under the able leadership of Honorable Mr. Mahmoud Al-Abrach, APA will continue to gain strength and command respect throughout Asia even further.

Thank you.

DEWAN PERWAKILAN RAKYAT REPUBLIK INDONESIA

STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT OF ASIAN PARLIAMENTARY ASSEMBLY (APA)
H.E. DR. MARZUKI ALIE
SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA
AT THE PLENARY MEETING OF THE 5TH
PLENARY SESSION OF THE APA

Damascus - Syria, 29 November 2010

His Excellency Mr. Dr. Mahmud Al-Abrash, Speaker of the People's Assembly of the Syrian Arab Republic, Honorable Dr. Nejad Hosseinian, Secretary General of APA,

*Honorable Members of Parliaments,
Distinguished invitees,
Ladies and Gentlemen,*

Bismillahirrohmanirrohim (In the name of God, the Merciful, the Compassionate)

Assalamu'alaikum Warohmatullah Wabarakatuh

It is a great honor for me to have, once again, the opportunity to deliver my speech in this APA forum in this Plenary Session in Syria. I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the People's Assembly of Syrian Arab Republic for your commitment to the APA to hold this Plenary Meeting.

I would also like to express my appreciation for the hard work that have been done by the Secretary General of the APA, who has prepared all essential materials to the continuity of the deliberation process in the Plenary Session. Moreover, I would also like to express my salute to the commitment and the dedication of all Members of Parliaments of APA who attend in this Plenary Session. I hope, what we all have done will be the evidence of our genuine sincerity in realizing prosperity, stability, security and peace in Asia.

Honorable Members of Parliaments,
Distinguished Invitees,
Ladies and Gentlemen,

Today, officially, the post of the President of APA which I hold will be handed over to Syria. Excellency Dr. Mahmud Al-Abrash, the Speaker of the People's Assembly of the Syrian Arab Republic, shortly will officially hold the mandate as the President of APA, a highly respectable position because it represents the only inter-parliamentary organization in the vast region of Asia. However, before I handover this post of President of APA to Excellency Dr. Mahmud Al-Abrash, Speaker of People's Assembly of Syrian Arab Republic, I would like to respectfully convey several things and commitments which we have done in my term of office.

Honorable Members of Parliaments,
Distinguished Invitees,
Ladies and Gentlemen,

The House of Representatives of the Republic of Indonesia has held the post as the President of APA since the end of 2008 until now, starting from the term of office of Mr. Agung Laksono as the Speaker of the House of Representatives until my term of office at this moment. During our Presidency, DPR RI has agreed to make APA as a gate of diplomacy to strengthen Asian region. In our view, in the fast changing global world, Indonesia will not be able to strive alone for the dream of an ideal world. APA is a gate for social and political interaction amongst parliaments in Asian countries. Therefore, since its early establishment, we have participated and actively involved in it. Our involvement is more active and intensive in our term of office as the President of APA.

In its early term of office, we held Plenary Session in 2008 which adopted approximately 20 resolutions out of five standing committees. On our initiative and the active role of all of Members of APA, also in that year, Jakarta Declaration on the Urgency for the Establishment of a New Global Financial Architecture was adopted. The declaration was originally generated from the global economy crises.

As a part of APA, the House of Representatives has also actively participated in all meetings, i.e. in meetings of Standing Committee and Sub Committee. We have shown our great attention to the APA so that we also participated in the forming of Ad-hoc group and Advisory Group for some issues ranging from Information Communication Technology (ICT), Protecting and Respecting Cultural Diversity in Asia, Energy, to issues that touched the organizational need of the APA like Financial and Regulation.

Honorable Members of Parliaments,
Distinguished Invitees,
Ladies and Gentlemen,

The real fundamental change the APA at this moment is the simplification of the Standing Committee from five to three, which was effectively applied in the 2009 Plenary Session in the APA Resolution on the Streamlining of the APA Work. The 2009 Plenary Session held in Bandung, was also a milestone for two countries, India and Kazakhstan, since the two countries officially was accepted as the APA Members. Therefore, the number of Members of APA becomes 41 countries from 50 countries in Asia. In the 2009 Plenary Session in Bandung, 11 resolutions and Bandung Declaration, covering democracy, security, peace, climate change, and the human rights protection and the strengthening of women's participations in politics and policy making were also adopted.

In 2010, APA consistently opens its room for meetings of the latest issues. Up to now, 15 draft resolutions and one draft decision to be adopted in this Plenary Session are ready. However, we should not be satisfied because there are still many things to be addressed for the existence of APA in global world.

The House of Representatives has noted there are still many issues to be addressed in the APA. In the organization of meetings, we note that there were Sub Committee meetings that were delayed as the quorum was not reached. Even though in the end the meetings were successfully held, this should become our review for the APA to settle this matter in the future. We very much hope the commitment of all APA members to support the whole programs and activities of APA.

Honorable Members of Parliaments,
Distinguished,
Ladies and Gentlemen,

In relation to the strengthening of the women's participation, the House of Representatives has officially proposed the forming of Women APA in the Executive Council of APA Meeting held in Jakarta in 2010. The Indonesian House of Representatives believes that this proposal is a part of the Bandung Declaration commitments. We do believe that it is time for APA to have concrete actions in propelling the ideals for strengthening the women's participations in politics and policy making. Indonesia has that commitment. We are open to women's participation in politics, and in other fields. The number of women parliamentarians in the House of Representatives has increased significantly every period. Therefore, I, as the President of APA as well as the Head of Delegation of the Indonesian House of Representatives, in this Plenary would like to express my gratitude for the support of all Members of APA related to the proposal. I do hope that the implementation of that commitment will not stop only until the forming of Women APA, but also in the effort to increase women's participation, including in the meetings of APA.

Our proposal can also be a driving factor for the full spirit of the APA Members to promote the gender equality and women's rights in each country. This will also be a part of crystallization of struggle and our support to the women's rights which are neglected in Palestine. We have noted that, until now, the conflict happening in Palestine due to the Israel's Aggression has not been over yet. As the result of the conflict, the vulnerable members of society like women and children of Palestine cannot enjoy their rights freely. They are held hostage by the interest of the aggression the Zionist regime.

Honorable Members of Parliaments,
Distinguished Invitees,
Ladies and Gentlemen,

It is still fresh in mind, Israel's despotic action by blocking the Gaza Strip. They build settlement in the West Bank by ignoring the fact that the land belongs to the Palestinians. The situation was worsened when Israel attacked and deported the Mavi Marmara humanitarian ship bound for the Gaza Strip in May 2010. Our stance, toward this aggression still and will not change. What the Israel has done in the Gaza Strip, West Bank and also the aggressions are despotic actions which ignore the human rights.

A few days ago, we were shocked by the endorsement of a Law on Referendum if Israel will sign a peaceful agreement to withdraw from Jerusalem and the Highland of Golan. This is a regressive step of the effort of peaceful negotiation initiated by international community. Indonesia strongly condemns the endorsement of the Law as it is against the international rules considering the world up to now has not recognized concretely that the areas belong to Israel.

Indonesia consistently stands for Palestine in defending their deprived rights as the result of the Israel's aggression. Even, the Indonesian House of Representatives, representing the APA, was the first party of the Asian Parliament that was able to penetrate the blockade in Gaza on 30 June 2010 after the attack launched by Israel on Mavi Marmara Humanitarian Ship. The effort was part of our humanitarian and solidarity mission including the assistance to build a hospital in Gaza Strip.

Together with Iran and Syria through APA Troika Plus, in June 2010, we reiterated our stance on the Palestinian issues. What we have done is a stance and a manifestation of the consistency of APA to defend the weak. It is the consistent stance of APA in realizing the resolutions. We can not avoid this reality. The Historical facts state that, since 2006, APA has reiterated its stance toward the respect for the human rights for women and children and the fight to support Palestine.

Honorable Members of Parliaments,
Honorable Invitees,
Ladies and Gentlemen,

In relation to the respect for the human rights, we also call for the APA Member Parliaments to foster and to give fundamentals for each country to respect the human rights. We underline the fact that migrant workers are also entitled to human rights.

As settled foreigners working in a foreign country, they no longer have basic protection as they have in their own country. However, if the country where they work has agreement on the protection of the basic rights, this will no longer be a problem.

Therefore, I call for the APA Members to push and develop our commitment to reinforce the protection of migrant workers' rights in a concrete foundation for our mutual interest. This foundation, of course, does not only reinforce the protection, but also improve the quality of migrant workers to guarantee their rights are not abused. I do hope that we can share this issue, considering the understanding of respecting human rights in the APA has been recognized since the adoption of the APA Charter and the adopted resolutions subsequently.

Honorable Members of Parliaments,
Honorable Invitees,
Ladies and Gentlemen,

Those are the matters that I would like to convey as a part of the accountability of what the House of Representatives of the Republic of Indonesia has done during my tenure as the President of APA. Now, it is time for me to handover the presidency to His Excellency Dr. Mahmud Al-Abrash, the Speaker of the People's Assembly of the Syrian Arab Republic.

Shortly, APA will have a new President. I would like to congratulate His Excellency Dr. Mahmud Al-Abrash, the Speaker of the People's Assembly of the Syrian Arab Republic, for his new mandate. I very much hope, the new President of APA will be able to continue the works of the APA more optimally. I also very much hope the new APA President will play significant roles optimally, for the realization of prosperity, stability, security and peace in Asia and unified Asia based on the APA's vision.

I call on all APA Member Parliaments to do their best efforts to maintain Asia's harmony and eliminate selfishness for the realization of peace at bilateral and multilateral levels. I also reaffirm that the Indonesian House of Representatives will not stop playing its roles in the APA. We are convinced that APA is the main gate of change in Asia, and also the unifying agent of Asia. For that reason, we assure you that Indonesia stands ready to cooperate with the new Leader of APA. Thank you.

Wassalamualaikum Warohmatullah Wabarakatuh

29 November 2010

Mr. President,
Honorable Speakers of Parliaments,
Honorable Members of Parliaments,
Distinguished Delegates,
Excellencies,
Ladies and Gentlemen,

It gives me a great pleasure to speak for the second times, before this august Assembly today. Allow me at the outset to congratulate Honorable, Mr. Mahmoud Al-Abrash, the Speaker of People's Assembly of the Syrian Arab Republic as the new APA President. I am confident that under his able leadership, APA will continue to work towards further realization of its objectives. I am also sure that the Secretariat will enjoy the full support of the new APA President as we did during the last two years, thanks to Honorable, Mr. Marzuki Alie, the former APA President and his competent colleagues, particularly Honorable, Mr. Noor Mohammad Wahid, the Head of APA Executive Councils in 2010.

The Fifth APA Plenary is yet another occasion for renewing our motivation and resolve to seize the available opportunities and aggregate our strength to meet our challenges. Flying together towards further integration in Asia has been the main theme of the APA resolutions and activities ever since the inception of the Assembly in 2006. Indeed, integration in Asia has been seen by the APA as a prelude to further peace, prosperity, democracy and justice in Asia. Each Asian Member Parliament has a role to play in the promotion of this ideal goal and a fair share of responsibility in facilitating and materializing its requirements.

Parliaments possess fundamental powers to set the ground for development plans and priority agenda of their own countries. Cooperation within the framework of the APA has provided Member Parliaments with a solid standing point for combining their strengths and harmonizing their efforts to perform the same functions at a regional level. The essence of Asian Parliamentary diplomacy as inspired and promoted by the APA is to utilize the powers and functions of Parliaments in a harmonized and effective manner towards further integration in Asia.

The principal function and effective power of Parliaments rest in their position as legislative power. By exercising their main function as law-making institutions, Asian Parliaments can immensely contribute to the process of Asian integration through their common legislations. The common legislation may just embody certain principles required to deal with the issue at hand. It does not necessarily include all the details of a legislation which, based on each country's distinctiveness, may be different from one country to another.

The initial common legislations by the APA may begin with subjects that are non-controversial and of particular concern to all Member Parliaments such as smuggling of cultural items in Asia; promoting health equity in Asia; and Asian strategy for climate change.

Indeed, the APA has already made remarkable contributions to the initiation of Asian integration by addressing fundamental issue areas relevant to the development and prosperity in Asia and by adopting resolutions which identify priority agenda items for further convergence among nations of this region.

What is needed at this stage is to find effective mechanisms for the realization of principles and objectives set out by the APA so far. Besides utilizing their legislative power, two strands of the same strategy must be woven together: Firstly, the APA Member Parliaments should engage their respective governments in the process of Asian integration and pave the way for the APA resolutions to become international conventions in the foreseeable future. Secondly, the APA Member Parliaments should organize a concerted public relations campaign to reach out to their respective constituencies and inform them of the values and benefits of the APA objectives and activities.

Mr. President,

Distinguished Delegates,

In reviewing the achievements of the APA by-meetings, I should like to report to the Plenary that thanks to the streamlining resolution of the Fourth Plenary, the APA managed to reduce the quantity of its sub-committee meetings and improve their quality throughout the year 2010. It helped the APA to rationalize its work and conduct its meetings more efficiently. Member Parliaments learned well in advanced of the calendar of APA events and meetings prepared by the Secretariat early in the year.

Issues related to the APA Standing Committee on Cultural and Social Affairs were addressed at a general meeting hosted by the Parliament of Palau. The subjects considered by this meeting included Globalization; Combating Corruption; and Health Equity.

The second general meeting which was held at the Headquarters of the APA Secretariat in Tehran, and hosted by the Parliament of the Islamic Republic of Iran covered all subjects pertaining to the APA Standing Committee on Political Affairs, including The Role of Asian Parliaments in Promoting Comprehensive Counter-Terrorism and Counter Occupation Strategies; Supporting the Right of Palestinian People; Declaration on Principles of Friendship and Cooperation in Asia; Nuclear Security Assurance; and Enhancing Cooperation between APA and Asian Governments.

The third general meeting which was hosted by the State Duma of the Russian Federation considered issues relevant to the purview of the APA Standing Committee on Economics and Sustainable Development. These subject matters included the Environment and the Integrated Energy Market in Asia.

The House of Representatives of the Republic of Indonesia hosted the sub-committee on International Financial Crisis. The Parliament of Cambodia hosted the Sub-Committee on Cultural Diversity. The Parliament of Turkey arranged to host the Sub-Committee on Alleviating poverty, but later cancelled the meeting. The House of Representatives of the Republic of Indonesia, as the APA President, had to fill in for Turkey and hosted the Sub-Committee on Alleviating Poverty.

I would like to express sincere thanks to the esteemed Parliaments of Cambodia, Indonesia, Iran, Palau, and Russia for hosting the APA meetings in 2010. I hope APA will enjoy the full cooperation of these and other Member Parliaments in conducting our work in 2011. My appreciations also go to all Member Parliaments that have actively participated in these meetings.

Mr. President,

Distinguished Delegates,

I need not go into the details of proceedings of all the meetings in 2010 since the distinguished delegates are in the possession of the written reports of these meeting as prepared and made available by the Secretariat. However, I think it is important and useful to elaborate on the following points:

International Conferences on Priority Subjects

In the course of deliberations of the meetings of the APA Standing Committees and Sub-Committees, and subsequently in the two meetings of the Executive Council in 2010, it has been recommended to this Plenary to hold international conferences on four important subjects that have been on the APA agenda for some time. This new mechanism is designed to give a boost to certain agenda items which need more scholarly elaborations on the one hand and more publicity on the other to accomplish their desired outcomes. Moreover, such conferences are expected to attract interested groups and stakeholders who are active in these fields in one way or another.

The recommended conferences for the year 2011 are to be held on the following subjects:

1. Principles of Cooperation and Friendly Relations in Asia;
2. Global Financial Crisis;
3. Asian Integrated Energy Market; and
4. Inter-Religious and Inter-Cultural Dialogue in Asia.

In the light of the participatory culture that has been developed within the APA, I am glad to announce that the Parliaments of Indonesia; Russia; and Iran, have undertaken to host and organize these conferences in 2011. The Secretariat will provide assistance to the host Parliaments on the organization and substance of the conferences. The Secretariat will announce, in coordination with the host, the appropriate dates for these international conferences.

Publicity Campaign in Asia and Beyond

In a world characterized by communication revolution and global media outreach, it is crucially important for the APA to make the old and young people in Asia informed and familiar with its goals and objectives. It should run a publicity campaign to inform both the public and the private institutions throughout Asia and even beyond of the potentials of our continent and the requirements of integration in Asia.

Promoting APA Day

In the context of publicity campaign, the APA Secretariat proposed commemoration of 14 November, on which the APA Charter was formally adopted, as the APA Day. The first Executive Council recommended to the Fifth Plenary to adopt a decision on 14 November as the APA Day. At the same time, the Secretariat has had a number of posters designed on the occasion of the APA Day which reflect the thematic effort of APA to achieve greater cooperation and integration in Asia. You have no doubt noticed these posters in the meeting halls.

Troika Plus Meetings

Utilizing APA potentials to address and find ways to help solve problems endangering peace in Asia has always been a priority for APA. In this context, the streamlining resolution urged APA Troika Plus to continue to make representation, on behalf of the APA, in areas and situations of conflict in order to help defuse the situation and promote international peace and security. In accordance with this resolution, a meeting of Troika Plus was held in Tehran, in May 2010, and addressed the grave situation in Gaza following Israeli aggression there.

I believe the Troika Plus mechanism is an efficient tool at the disposal of the Assembly to be utilized to respond to emergency situations. Troika Plus mechanism is expected to prove more effective because it relies on Asian potentials and political asset that the Asian Parliaments carry.

APA Financial Regulations

The Third APA Plenary Meeting encouraged the Secretary-General to develop a set of financial and personnel regulations including scale of assessment of contributions by Member Parliaments for consideration and approval of the Executive Council.

We in the Secretariat have worked for some months on this subject and after consulting different modalities employed by international organizations such as the United Nations, the International Parliamentary Union and the Organization of the Islamic Conference, have come up with a draft proposal on the APA scale of assessment of contributions.

According to the APA Streamlining Resolution, the Fourth Vice-President of the Plenary is responsible to arrange the meetings of the Ad-Hoc Committee in order to make a concrete recommendation on the draft regulations to the Executive Council in 2011. It is important for the APA that the Executive Council and the Plenary would consider and adopt both the Staff and Financial Regulations at appropriate time.

Until the APA adopts its own financial regulations and determine the scale of assessed contribution by its Member Parliaments, I urge the Member Parliaments to consider making voluntary financial contributions to the organization in order to support its accomplishments and make the implementation of its mandates more feasible. This issue is becoming increasingly more important as we approach the year 2011 by which new arrangements have to be made to manage the financial affairs of the APA Secretariat.

Furthermore, the Secretariat has also sought to generate fund for the APA activities by exploring the possibility of involving the private sector to initiate a range of activities that promote APA principles and objectives. Ideas such as organizing an annual Asian Economic Forum, if supported by APA, is bound to promote APA principles and objectives on the one hand, and generate funds needed for the APA activities.

APA International Outreach

In line with the mandates of the APA resolutions, the Secretariat has taken certain steps to expand the international ties and interactions of the Assembly with international governmental organizations such as the United Nations; inter-parliamentary organizations such as the Inter-Parliamentary Union (IPU); Parliamentary Union of the Organization of the Islamic Conference (PUIC); Inter-Parliamentary Union of the Arab Countries (IPUAC); Latin American Inter-Parliamentary Assembly (LAIPA); and non-governmental organizations such as the International Conference of Asian Political Parties (ICAPP); Most of the APA activities in this respect have been directed to attending the general assemblies of these organizations and seeking and granting observer status on the mutual basis. In my view, the growing international outreach of the APA will definitely contribute to the realization of its goals and objectives.

Furthermore, the Secretary-General has participated in the several IPU Assembly meetings and explained the APA positions on different issues related to IPU Agenda. On these occasions, in accordance with the Third APA Plenary resolution, APA coordination meetings have been held on the sideline of the IPU meetings in order to discuss and coordinate positions of APA Member Parliaments on major international issues of importance to APA. I am pleased to report to the Plenary that the participation by the APA Member Parliaments in these coordinating meetings has steadily grown and proved constructive in presentation of the APA position on the one hand and the promotion of its stature on the other.

The APA international outreach would also require more involvement of its Member Parliaments in the activities of the Secretariat. I urge the Member Parliaments to consider supporting the Secretariat by seconding competent and qualified experts from their countries to work with the Secretariat. This will help us to improve our performance and create a more diversified environment.

In conclusion, I must stress that that APA has grown tremendously as an organization under Indonesian leadership. APA continues to grow and give greater voice to Asian people. We need to follow up implementation of our decisions and resolutions. Hopefully, APA will take major steps in this direction under Syrian leadership.

Thank you.

Statement by Hon. KIM Sung Gon,
Representative of the National Assembly of the Republic of Korea at the Plenary Session of the 5th General Assembly of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly in Syria on November 29, 2010

Honorable Dr. Mahumud Al Abrash, Speaker of the People's Assembly of the Syrian Arab Republic and H.E. Dr. M.H. Nejad-Hosseinian, Secretary-General of the APA,

On behalf of the National Assembly of the Republic of Korea, let me extend my heartfelt gratitude for inviting us to the 5th APA General Assembly. And I would like to send the best regards from H.E. PARK Hee Tae, Speaker of the Korean National Assembly, to all the delegates present here today.

And my special thanks go to all of you for accepting me as one of the Vice Presidents representing the Political Standing Committee. In particular, let me thank Iran for its special consideration.

Since the inception of the APA, the Republic of Korea has offered its presence consistently. I gained a better understanding of the sufferings of Arab countries including Palestine and its neighboring countries by attending many APA Assemblies thus far. We, Korea, had similar experiences in the past such as aggression and colonial rule by our neighboring countries for a long time; therefore, I fully sympathize with the difficult situation facing Palestine, and it is our sincere hope that you can bring peace to this region at the earliest possible time. We will pledge to make our best efforts in this matter. And Israel should acknowledge the rights of the Palestine people, and recover occupied Arab territories to its neighbors in accordance to the U.N. Resolution.

Just as Palestine needs peace at the western tip of Asia, we also need peace on the Korean Peninsula at the eastern tip of Asia. At this stage, I cannot help but mention the conflict between South and North Korea on the Korean Peninsula, which occurred on November 23, 2010. As you know, Korea had been a united country for 1,300 years. After independence from the Japanese colonial rule in 1945, Korea has been divided between the South and the North in confrontation against each other. The Korean War broke out in 1950, claiming millions of lives, and afterwards, although there have been sporadic clashes between the two Koreas after the Armistice Agreement was signed, the recent artillery attacks by North Korea on Yeonpyeong Island off South Korea's west coast and its civilian residential areas was the first-ever attack on the South Korean soil since the Korean War.

Against this background, the Korean National Assembly almost unanimously passed the Resolution in a bi-partisan manner denouncing North Korea's armed military provocations. The said Resolution strongly calls for North Korea to apologize for its illegal artillery shelling causing 20 deaths and injuries including innocent civilians in outright violation of the inter-Korean Basic Agreement, the Armistice Agreement and Clause 4, the Article 2 of the U.N. Charter, and to ensure that there will not be any recurrence of such provocations in the future.

Furthermore, North Korea has disclosed uranium enrichment facility at its nuclear centre in Yongbyon. We, APA, are drafting a Resolution that the Asian continent should be free from nuclear weapons. Korea believes that use of nuclear energy for peaceful purposes should be guaranteed, but clearly oppose the development of nuclear weapons. North Korea's nuclear development should be halted since it threatens peace not only on the Korean Peninsula, but also Northeast Asia as a whole. We seek your active support from APA member Parliaments so that North Korea gives up its nuclear weapons programs, and returns to the six party talks aimed at the North's nuclear disarmament and permanent peace on the Korean Peninsula.

Now that North Korea, as APA member, is not here with us in the Assembly, let me wrap up the inter-Korean issues here. Anyway, we do not want a war. We do want peace, and sincerely hope that the two Koreas can be reunified.

I myself serve as Secretary General of Asian Conference of Religions and Peace (ACRP), contributing to interfaith and intercultural dialogue. All religions teach that individuals love each other and live peacefully side by side. This message of love should also be applied to countries as well. As Jesus advised, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself," genuine peace is possible only when you love your neighboring countries as you do for your own country.

As Vice President for the Political Standing Committee, I am considering hosting a meeting under the Standing Committee on Political Affairs next year in Seoul. And a tentative theme would be how to achieve reconciliation among countries which are hostile against each other. (For example, Palestine vs. Israel and South Korea vs. North Korea) If we recognize that we humans have equal rights and implement the spirit of equality, humanity and love of people, then nations will be able to reconcile as is the case of individuals.

I am very much grateful for Syria hosting this Assembly, particularly because Syria is the one and only country in Asia that hasn't yet established diplomatic ties with Korea. After coming here, I realized that Syria has such a long history and plays a very important role in the Middle East peace process. Moreover, 70% of cars on the streets of Syria are Korean cars. Now, there appears to be no reason why the two countries cannot establish the bilateral diplomatic relations. It is my earnest wish that the People's Assembly of Syria takes the leadership role in this endeavor.

Once again, I deeply appreciate Syria and the APA Secretariat for their hard work, and please accept my best wishes for your good health and prayer for the peace in your country.

Thank you listening.

SPEECH

Hon. Mr. Nguon Nhel, First Vice-President of the National Assembly and President of Cambodian National Parliamentary Group of APA

the 5th Plenary Session of APA

(28 November - 01 December 2010, Damascus, Syrian Arab Republic)

“The Roles of Asian Parliaments in Achieving Security and Peace in the Middle East Region”

* Honorable Dr. MAHMUD AL ABRASH, Speaker of People’s Assembly of Syrian Arab Republic, and President of APA

* His Excellency Dr. M.H. Nejad-Hosseinian, Secretary-General of APA

* Honorable Delegates,

* Distinguished Guests, Ladies and Gentlemen,

Today I have the honor and pleasure to warmly address your excellencies, distinguished guests, ladies and gentlemen in this beautiful and developed country of the Middle East. I am also very proud to lead the Cambodian Parliamentarian Delegation at the 5th Plenary Session of APA.

On behalf of the National Assembly of Kingdom of Cambodia and the Cambodian Delegation, I wish to thank the Government, the Assembly and the people of Syrian Arab Republic for working in continual good cooperation with Cambodia. I also wish to especially thank the Organizing Committee for the warmest hospitality extended to us on this occasion.

Honorable delegates, Distinguished Guests, Ladies and Gentlemen!

Security and Peace are essential factors in developing countries at both regional and international levels; especially within the Middle East Region, which has befallen to war for more than 60 years, resulting in tragedies and sufferings in nations in the region, including Syria. Nations all over the world have been working hard together to achieve Security and Peace for all mankind and as noted by the Hon. Dr. Mahmud Al Abrash, Speaker of People’s Assembly of Syrian Arab Republic and the President of Asian Parliamentary Assembly, in his speech, those leaders of parliaments and representatives of people in each respective region have played a core role in strengthening security and peace. Parliament is working to adopt legislation, represent people, and monitor implementation; conversely the government directly implements the peace seeking policies. However, in order to achieve these goals, it requires close and effective cooperation between the executive and legislative branches.

Honorable delegates, Distinguished Guest, Ladies and Gentlemen!

Cambodia has faced over decades of civil war but through negotiations and reconciliation is living in a new era of peace and national unity through the win-win policy enacted by Samdech Akka Moha Sena Padei Techo HUN SEN, Prime Minister of the Kingdom of Cambodia. However, there are a lot of complexities surrounding the conflicts in the Middle East, compared to the Cambodian issue. I note and recognize a vast difference of race and origin of the people, religions, governments, as well as the economic and social standing of countries in this region. The conflicts are for the causes of territory, religion, history, and security. The Palestinian-Israeli issue remains the longest and explosive running conflicts in the Middle East. Year after year, Palestinian people are denied of their right to establish a Palestine State living side by side in peace with the people of Israel. The United Nations' Forum has urged the parties concerned to comply with the United Nations Security Council resolutions, while the world is waiting impatiently for a peace agreement between the two parties.

Honorable delegates, Distinguished Guest, Ladies and Gentlemen!

In this context, Cambodia would happily welcome any initiatives that aim to provide peaceful and non-violent approaches, and that will strengthen the role of parliament in achieving Security and Peace in the region. On behalf of the Cambodian people I wish to urge both parties to act with utmost restraint and to stop any act of provocation in order to pave the way for a peaceful solution in the Middle East Region.

Cambodia always supports the Palestinians' struggle for their right of self-determination in establishing a Palestine State that exists in harmony with Israel. Furthermore, Cambodia does not want to see any violence between Israel and Palestine. Cambodia also fully supports the Middle East Quartet's appeal for a halt in settlement building and immediate final status negotiations to reach a comprehensive state of peace.

Cambodia is optimistic that all Asian countries will seek peace and prosperity throughout the meetings through which to share and exchange our ideas, mutual understandings, and cooperation towards a peaceful co-existence, social harmonization, and mutual trusts.

I would lastly like to wish this 5th Asian Parliamentarian General Assembly, a fruitful, effective and successful gathering and deliberation for all of our nations.

Thank you
